DEATH IN THE DUST.

Frightful Loss of Life Occurs in Toledo.

Large Elevator Destroyed by an Explosion.

Fire Follows and Ten Perish in the Flames.

The Catastrophe Took Place While a Full Force of Men Was at Work--List of the Victims.

TOLEDO, Ohio, Sept. 21.—A dust explosion in the great elevator of the Union Elevator and Transportation company at 8:25 last night resulted in the death of most of the employes in the structure and a money loss exceeding a half million dollars.

There were 450,000 bushels of wheat, corn and oats in store and the entire force were at work shipping an order for 80,000 bushels of oats by rail at the time of the disaster. The explosion was heard all over the city and resembled the distant firing of heavy artillery.

The roof of the structure was thrown a hundred feet into the air and fell a mass of wreckage. The sides of the building were all thrown outward, leaving the huge grain bins standing without covering.

Every part of the wreck was instantly a mass of flames, and the conflagration was seen miles away before the fire department could reach the scene.

THE DEAD.

The list of dead so far is as follows:

Grace Parks, aged 19, daughter of Supt. W. J. Parks.
John Carr, shoveler.
Fred Garrett, shoveler.
Everett Smith, machinist.
Unknown Polish shoveler.
Another shoveler, unknown.

THE MISSING, SUPPOSED TO BE DEAD.

The following are missing and are believed to have been burned inside the building:

Frank Van Hoosen, grain inspector.
Samuel Alexander, weigher.
Harold Parks, aged 6, son of Supt. W. J. Parks.
Charles Keefer, engineer.
Davenport, shoveler.
Brinkerhoff, shoveler.

THE INJURED.

The injured are:

Hamilton Parks, aged 10, son of Supt. W. J. Parks, fatally burned.
John Smith, shoveler, face, arms and neck burned. Will probably die.
Barney Welsh, shoveler, face burned, especially eyes and ears; believed to be fatally hurt.
Fred Pargellis, assistant foreman, may recover.
Wm. J. Parks, superintendent, burned all over; fatally injured.
W. C. Jordan, yardmaster Ohio Central railroad, badly burned about face and arms.

CHILDREN WERE THERE.

Superintendent Parks had his three children with him in the building.

He was in the office at the time of the catastrophe, was blown through a window and found twenty feet away, frightfully burned, with his clothing torn off. His daughter, Grace, was seated at her father's desk, aiding him in some clerical work. She was blown through the door, her clothing aflame. She rose and ran a short distance, when she fell and rolled down a twenty foot embankment on to the Lake Shore tracks.

She was picked up, her clothing all burned off except her shoes, and medical aid summoned. She died later in the evening.

THE LOSSES ENORMOUS.

The Ohio Central road, whose tracks ran near the building, lost a depot building and a number of cars, making a total of about $50,000. The elevator was owned by the Backus family, and was operated by Paddock, Hodge & Co. The total loss, including that of the Ohio Central, is $610,000, of which $250,000 is on the building and $310,000 on grain. The building was insured for $136,000 and the grain $258,000.

FIVE MEN INJURED.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Sept. 21.—Five men were injured at the new government dam at Neville Island, near Carapolis, Pa., by the breaking of a large traveling crane. Two of the men are in a critical condition and may die. Their names are:

M. Evans, Montour Junction.
Noah Stanley, Evansville, Ind.
Martin Beck, Wellsburg, W. Va.
John Young, Evansville, Ind.
William White, Pittsburg.

Evans and Stanley are injured internally and are not expected to recover.

The accident was caused by the breaking of a steel guy line of the crane, which precipitated a large derrick, sixty feet above the crane, to the ground. In its descent the derrick tore away the supports of the crane, which crashed down upon the workmen. A huge block of stone which was being raised when the guy line broke, fell a distance of forty-five feet among a group of workmen, but fortunately the men ran for their lives, and all but five escaped injury.

GOING THE ROUNDS.

Secretary Alger Visits the Camp at Knoxville.

Reviews General McKee's Division--His Presence Made the Occasion of a Half Holiday in Knoxville.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 21.—Secretary of War Alger, Surgeon-General Sternberg and party arrived this morning at 8:30 from Lexington and were met by a reception committee of citizens. The party proceeded at once to Camp Poland, where the Second division of the first corps, commanded by Brigadier General McKee, passed in review before General Alger.

Seven regiments, the First Georgia, Thirty-first Michigan, Second and Sixth Ohio, First West Virginia, Third North Carolina and Sixth Virginia, the two latter colored, took part in the review.

The secretary and party after reviewing the division inspected the camps and hospitals. After luncheon at the residence of W. B. Lockett, in Knoxville, the party was driven to points of interest about Knoxville.

The party leaves this afternoon for Chattanooga and Camp Thomas.

Knoxville was in gala attire in honor of the secretary's visit and a half holiday was observed.

AN OLD DIVORCE.

F. W. Marshall Investigating One Granted in 1872.

Heirs Fighting for a Big Estate Down in Massachusetts--Allege Fraud in a Divorce Case.

Frederick W. Marshall, of Boston, Mass., is in the city looking up records through which he hopes to prove that Andrew J. Stearns was a resident of Fort Wayne in 1871 and 1873. In the early seventies Stearns came to Fort Wayne to reside. When he had been here the length of time required by law Stearns applied for a divorce from his wife. The application was made in the court over which Judge Carson then presided and is now on record in the Huntington circuit court. Joseph France, father of Harry F. France and J. E. K. France, was attorney for Mr. Stearns. The wife filed a cross-complaint, and on this cross-complaint the divorce was granted.

Stearns then moved back to the east and was twice married after the granting of the divorce. A few years ago he died and now the heirs of the first wife are fighting to have the divorce annulled on the ground that Stearns had not acquired a legal residence in Indiana. Mr. Marshall visited Huntington Tuesday and found the record of divorce, but inasmuch as Fort Wayne was the place of Mr. Stearns' residence, he hopes to find here some evidence that will dispose of all doubt of his legal residence in Hoosierdom. Mr. Stearns was quite wealthy and the first wife was given alimony in the sum of $15,000. Mr. Marshall is at the New Aveline and has been examining records and making inquiry of old residents during the day.

CONVICTS REVOLT.

Uprising in French Penal Colony in Guiana.

Murder the Guards, Seize Arms and are Besieging Cayenne--Captain Dreyfus in Great Danger.

LONDON, Sept. 21.—A special dispatch from Paris says the deputies representing French Guiana in the chamber have received a dispatch announcing that a mutiny has taken place among the convicts at Cayenne, the capital of French Guiana. The mutineers, it appears, overpowered and murdered their guards and then stormed the military storehouse and seized the arms and ammunition there. They are now, according to the dispatch, besieging the principal prison, and it is feared they may succeed in freeing the 4,000 convicts confined in the building.

Reinforcements have been telegraphed for to the island of Martinique, but it is said they will not arrive in time to suppress the mutiny.

Devil's island, where Albert Dreyfus, the former captain in the French artillery, is confined under sentence for having sold secrets of the war offices to a foreign government, is but a short distance from Cayenne. It is possible that the revolt of convicts may be the death knell of the prisoner whose condemnation has so fired up the French nation, for his guards are under strict orders to kill him if any attempt is made to release him or if there is any possibility of his escaping.

CERVERA GETS HOME

Spanish Admiral and Officers Reach Santander.

Large Crowd Gathers to Cheer the Old Sailor.

Captain Eulate Refuses to Talk for Publication.

Senor Rios Talks Frankly of the Fatuousness of the Spanish--Soldiers Leave Porto Rico for Spain.

SANTANDER, Spain, Sept. 21.—The Anchor line steamer City of Rome, chartered by Admiral Cervera to transport to Spain the Spanish sailors captured at the battle of Santiago, who were recently released by the United States authorities, arrived here today from Portsmouth, N. H., whence she sailed on September 12. Captain Eulate, the former commander of the Spanish cruiser Vizcaya, and the other Spanish naval officers landed and were mistaken for a party of which Admiral Cervera was a member. The latter, however, was still on board the City of Rome, but a crowd followed the officers and cheered for Admiral Cervera.

Captain Eulate refused to make any statement for publication, declaring he reserved what he had to say for the court martial.

PAINFUL SPECTACLE TO RIOS.

MADRID, Sept. 21.—Senor Montero Rios, president of the senate and president of the Spanish peace commission, in an interview published today is quoted as saying:

"It is a painful spectacle to see politicians of all sides trying to throw on each other the blame for disasters, the responsibility for which rested on all parties. I, personally, have always favored autonomy for Cuba, Spain being unable to forcibly maintain her sovereignty at such a great distance."

Continuing, Senor Montero Rios said:

"It is useless to speak of our disasters. Has not the country accused all our governments of exhibiting too much weakness towards the United States? What Spain wanted was a man ready to sacrifice himself and who recognized the impossibility of war with a powerful nation, especially after years of useless conflicts with insurgents."

EVACUATING PORTO RICO.

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, Sept. 21.—(Delayed in transmission.)—The repatriation of the Spanish soldiers began today. Four hundred men, of whom 200 were sick and 200 belonged to the engineer corps, sailed for Spain on board the French steamer Chateau Lafitte. Eight hundred infantry, belonging to the Asturias battalion, will sail tomorrow on board the steamer San Francisco.

The water front was crowded with thousands of people when the Spanish engineers marched down, to the music of the Spanish quickstep, to the wharf, where they were received by Captain-General Macias and General Ortega.

The captain-general did not make a speech, but he shook hands with the officers and men. There was no demonstration made by the people. Some Spanish field pieces are already on board the San Francisco, but a question has arisen in the commission concerning the disposition of some of the guns, and it was not settled when this dispatch was filed.

The captain general today gave notice to the Spanish troops to retire from Abonito, Baranquilas, and Barros on Sunday and from Humacao, Guamani and Cayey on Monday.

Our troops will move up and occupy those towns as soon as they are evacuated and the Spanish troops in position near the capital will enter the city in order to be ready to embark on the arrival of the transports here.

AFRAID OF FEVER.

The residents of Porto Rico and some of the Americans here, are alarmed because the Spanish ships returning from Cuba stop at this port. They believe there is danger of the introduction of yellow fever into the island from the Spanish steamer City of Cadiz, as some of the men sick on board of her were too ill to proceed and were brought ashore.

Our commissioners will protest if there is a repetition of this.

The volunteers have all been disbanded and the Spanish soldiers are engaged in dismantling the armories and barracks and in boxing the guns and ammunition. They are rejoiced over the prospect of an early return to their homes.

Rear Admiral Sohley has refused to purchase the coal stored here and it may be purchased for the use of the United States army.

GLADIEUX HELPED.

Saved Lawrence County Murderer From Lynching.

The Allen County Deputy Assisted the Sheriff in Spiriting His Prisoner to the Penitentiary.

Deputy Sheriff Frank Gladieux returned this morning from Bedford, where he had taken George L. Boyers on a bench warrant for contempt of court. Mr. Gladieux had an exciting experience while in Bedford. A man named Snow had been on trial for murdering one McCarty. The jury returned a verdict finding him guilty and fixing punishment at life imprisonment. The citizens of Lawrence county were enraged at the verdict, believing, as they did, that the death penalty should have been inflicted and many of them were preparing to Lynch Snow when Deputy Sheriff Gladieux arrived in Bedford. The sheriff asked Mr. Gladieux to assist them and together they succeeded in spiritingSnow out of the city and at this time he is in the Michigan City prison. The Lawrence county sheriff and Deputy Gladieux drove in a buggy with Snow to an out-of-the-way railway station and left on the first train for the northern prison. Deputy Gladieux accompanied the sheriff and his prisoner to Lafayette and then came home. Mr. Beyers had not had his hearing when the deputy sheriff left Bedford.

AN EXPERT'S VIEW.

Captain Paget's Opinions of the War With Spain.

Criticises the Methods of Transporting Troops--Cervera's Sortie Was Foolhardy--American Battleships.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—Captain Alfred Paget, British naval attache assigned to observe operations during the recent campaign in the West Indies, is engaged here in assembling the large mass of material gathered in Cuba, and in supplementing this with the official data now being supplied by the navy department. He will spend most of the fall in getting together the material for his report to the British admiralty, which will be an exhaustive treatment of the naval branches of the campaign, with considerable attention to the military branch owing to the joint operations of the two branches during several stages of the war, and particularly in the seige of Santiago.

NAVY SHOULD HAVE CONTROL.

Speaking informally today of some of his observations, Captain Paget said it had been shown quite clearly that the naval branch of the service should have complete control of all army transportation by sea. He points out that this is the practice the world over. In the British service all transports are under the control of the admiralty.

When troops are to be shipped, the war officials make known to the admiralty the number of the men in the expedition, the divisions into infantry, cavalry and artillery and the various requirements of the several divisions. It then becomes the duty of the naval branch to provide the transports, carry the troops, the several divisions distinct and with their proper equipment, and provide all supplies required for the trip.

A naval officer, usually a lieutenant commander on the retired list, is placed in command of each transport, it being impossible to secure proper service from merchant captains.

The naval branch also conducts all loading and unloading of troops and supplies, this being a branch in which naval officials are well versed.

SUCH PRACTICE IS GENERAL.

It is not until the troops are on land that the army authorities assume direction of affairs. This practice, in general operation with all large countries, particularly those having colonial possessions, could be adopted with advantage by this country, in Captain Paget's opinion, as much of the confusion in the transportation and landing of the army and supplies was due to the inexperience of the merchant captains of transports and to the direction of all sea transportation by the army rather than by the navy.

Captain Paget's report will devote much attention to the destruction of Admiral Cervera's fleet, as this was the main naval incident of the war. He is securing from the navy department complete reports of the gunnery of the American ships, with a view of showing the importance of "the man behind the gun."

CERVERA'S SORTIE FOOLHARDY.

Captain Paget's personal view is that Admiral Cervera's sortie was a most foolhardy venture, which cannot be justified by naval standards, even though ordered by the admiral's superiors.

According to Captain Paget's view, the most effective use Admiral Cervera could have made of his squadron was to have dismantled the ships of all the lighter guns, particularly the quick fires, and turned over the guns and men to General Toral for use in defending the city.

These quick fire guns, some hundred or more, distributed along the entrenchments, and handled by the trained men of the squadron, would have been able to sustain a deadly fire on the American advance. Captain Paget expresses the belief that such a move would have made Santiago practically impregnable.

COULD HAVE HELD SANTIAGO.

He has no doubt starvation and disease would have broken down the Spanish defense in time, but Cervera's guns could have held the town from a defeat by assault.

In case of a sortie from the harbor, Captain Paget shares the view of the American naval officers that the sorties should have been made at night.

If attempted in daylight the Spanish ships should have directed their attention to the American transports, as they furnished a vulnerable point where great havoc could have been wrought. In any event, whether transports or our warships were attacked, Captain Paget maintains that the Spanish policy should have been to rush at our ships, taking them unaware before steam could be got up, and taking the risk of loss so long as some damage was inflicted. Had this plan been adopted, he thinks it might have resulted in the ramming and sinking of one or more of our ships.

AMERICAN BATTLESHIPS.

Captain Paget speaks highly of our new battleships and cruisers particularly those now on the docks, which he has examined critically through plans and specifications. He says foreign naval experts long ago recognized that first-class warships could be built in the United States, although he does admit that our ships yet excel, or even equal those of British build. In this connection a prominent naval officer recently told Captain Paget that the new cruiser New Orleans, bought in England during the early stages of the war, was a revelation to the authorities here in so far as her guns and armament are concerned.

FELL DOWN STAIRS.

Two Victims of This Kind of an Accident, and Both Hurt.

Mrs. B. H. Rekers and Herbert Kay the Unfortunates--Miss Hoffman Seriously Injured--Other Accidents.

Mrs. B. H. Rekers, wife of the Washington boulevard grocer, fell down stairs last evening, sustaining injuries of a serious nature, from which she was rendered unconscious for several hours. Although no bones were broken, injuries were inflicted upon the head, shoulders and breast, and possibly internally. The accident happened at the lady's home, 201 Wells street. Mrs. Rekers had been taking an afternoon nap, and upon rising she started across the upstairs hall. Being in a dazed condition, she missed the highest step of the stairway and fell headlong to the bottom.

BROKE HIS ARM.

George Miller, a peddler, was thrown from his wagon yesterday while unloading iron at Weil Bros.' junk shop, and his left arm was broken. The horse shied and threw him out of the rear end of the light wagon. Mr. Miller is now carrying the injured member in a sling, and is unable to be with his huckster wagon.

FELL DOWN STAIRS.

This morning Herbert Kay, a boarder at the American house, corner of Calhoun and Railroad streets, fell down stairs at the hotel and broke his right arm near the shoulder. A deep gash was also cut in his forehead. Dr. C. E. Barnett was called and the injured man was removed to St. Joseph hospital, where the injuries were dressed.

MISS KATE HOFFMAN HURT.

Yesterday afternoon, while engaged in a game of golf, at Swinney park, Miss Kate Hoffman, the elder daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hoffman, of West Berry street, was struck by a stick in the hands of a player, and seriously injured. The frontal portion of the skull was fractured by the force of the blow. Drs. Bulson and Deming attended the patient. One of the eyes is seriously injured. It is thought the young lady will recover without suffering any permanent effects. The injury was sustained in a purely accidental manner. Miss Hoffman was stooping to pull away the weeds and grass from a ball at which another player struck. The ball was driven, and the stick, rebounding, hit Miss Hoffman full in the face.

At a late hour this afternoon a rumor was current that Miss Hoffman's condition was critical. The report was denied by Dr. Deming, who says the patient is doing nicely.

HAND MASHED.

Ed. Davis, an employe at the court house, had his left hand mashed by a heavy stone this afternoon. The man's little finger may have to be amputated, as the bones are badly splintered.

BABY TAYLOR HURT.

This morning Baby Houghton, the child of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Taylor, fell from a baby cab onto the asphalt pavement. The little one suffered from the jar, but it is thought there will be no permanent effects from the accident.

A BROKEN LEG.

Mrs. Blackford, of 23 Penn street, was injured last evening in a runaway accident and sustained two fractures of the left leg. She was thrown from her buggy. The lady was removed to her home, where Dr. McHugh attended her.

Mrs. Allen Bair, of Randolph street, was very pleasantly surprised last evening, the occasion for the affair being her birthday anniversary. Dancing and card playing were features of the evening. Music was furnished by Joe Olds and Fred Brown. At 12 o'clock supper was served.

Columbian Court of Honor, No. 242, will transact important business this evening.

THE REQUIEM SUNG.

Funeral Rites Over the Body of Consul Proskowetz.

Impressive Services are Held in the Cathedral.

Remains to be Sent to Chicago for Interment.

Further Funeral Ceremonies Will be Held in That City--Remains Will Rest in Calvary Cemetery.

This morning, at the Cathedral, impressive services were held in respect to the memory of the late Austrian consul general of Chicago, Chevalier Max von Proskowetz.

Requiem high mass was celebrated and other rites performed as preliminary ceremonies before the shipment of the remains to Chicago, where the funeral proper will be held next Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

Yesterday afternoon the body of the dead consul was placed in a solid bronze casket by Funeral Director Peltier, and the face exposed to public view. The body laid in state at the Peltier parlors this morning from 7 to 9 o'clock, during which time hundreds of people interested in the sad fate of the consul, by reason of his prominence in affairs international, passed through and gazed upon the passive features of the dead man.

SIMPLICITY PREVAILED.

The casket bore no flowers, nor even a plate, there being no attempt at funeral decorations for the reason that the obsequies of an official nature do not take place in this city. The casket was of the hermetically sealed pattern, weighs 450 pounds and presents a magnificent appearance. It is constructed of a material that will endure forever.

At 9 o'clock the casket was borne from the parlors to the funeral car by pall bearers selected from members of the Catholic congregations of the city, and in deference to the wishes of Dr. Lorria, secretary of the consulate at Chicago, as well as to show the sympathy of the city, three representatives of the city served. The pall bearers were H. C. Berghoff, Dennis Monahan, W. H. Dreier, P. J. McDonald, F. W. Irwin, T. J. O'Brien, F. X. Schuler and Dr. E. J. McOscar. Those serving for the city were Messrs. Berghoff, McDonald and Schuler.

AT THE CATHEDRAL.

Arrived at the Cathedral the casket was placed at the front of the sanctuary and surrounded with candles and other religious insignia of the occasion. The mourner's bench was occupied by Dr. Lorria, the secretary of the consulate, and Adolph Weiner, attorney for the same, both of whom were bosom friends of the deceased.

Requiem high mass was sung by the following members of the clergy:

Celebrant — Very Rev. John Guendling, vicar general.
Deacon—Rev. M. J. Byrne.
Sub Deacon—Rev. J. Bathe, chancellor.
Master of Ceremonies—Rev. F. Danderand.

BISHOP RADEMACHER'S SERMON.

After the pontification of this mass, which is one of the most beautiful and impressive rites of the church, the Rt. Rev. Bishop Rademacher pronounced the absolution and delivered a sermon eulogistic of the life of the deceased. The bishop spoke of the high intellectual qualities of the man, touching upon his abilities as a diplomat and author. He also referred to his kind and generous nature, evidences of which had come to him from various sources. He said that everybody ought to mourn over the death of one so noble, so pure in heart and so distinguished, as the loss is the world's loss. The sudden removal from earthly scenes of Consul Proskowetz he said was the more lamentable by reason of the fact that he was yet in the fullness of manhood that shone resplendent with many grand works, and the future of which would have produced a great deal more. "The sympathies of many people will follow the remains to the grave, and will cross the seas to the native home of the deceased, where the aged father and others near and dear are bowed in grief."

Immediately after the sermon the bishop delivered the benediction and the audience was dismissed. The remains were left in the church until 12 o'clock, when they were taken to the south depot and placed on the train leaving here at 12:15 for Chicago.

THE CLERGY PRESENT.

The clegy present in the sanctuary during the services were the following:

Rev. Thomas Eisenring, C. F. P. S., of the St. Joseph hospital, who prepared the consul for the last on his deathbed.
Rev. John Oechtering, of St. Mary's.
Rev. J. F. Delaney, of St. Patrick's.
Rev. H. F. X. Kroll, of St. Paul's.
Rev. H. T. Wilkes, of Decatur.
Rev. H. Boeckelman, of Elkhart.
Rev. R. Denk, of Sheldon.

There were also fifteen attendants upon the bishop.

The names of those participating in the services, as well as the clergy in attendance, will be sent to Austria by Dr. Lorria, and inscribed in the archieves of the family of Proskowetz, which is one of the foremost in that part of the country where they live.

BURIAL IN CHICAGO.

The Chicago Times-Herald this morning gives the following details of the funeral services and burial in that city:

"The funeral service over the remains of Chevalier Max von Proskowetz will be held Friday morning at 10 o'clock from the Cathedral of the Holy Name, and the interment will be in Calvary. The body of the consul general will be brought from Fort Wayne to Chicago this afternoon by attaches of the local Austro-Hungary consulate. It will lie in state at the consulate, 620 Dearborn avenue, all day Thursday. Before being taken from Fort Wayne funeral rites will be conducted and the body of the dead will be blessed. The remains will be followed to the cathedral in this city by the entire consular corps of Chicago. The consuls will also place upon the grave a floral piece elaborately ribboned and showing the escutcheon of the family Proskowetz. Rev. M. J. Fitzsimmons, rector of the Holy Name Cathedral, assisted by two priests, will conduct the solemn funeral mass at the church.

"The consular corps of Chicago gathered yesterday afternoon at the office of Carl Buenz, German consul, and addressed a letter of condolence in French to Chevalier Emanuel von Proskowetz, father of the dead consul. Mr. Buenz, in making known the cause of the meeting, paid a tribute to the character and talents of the late consul general. The telegram telling of the wishes of the family in regard to the funeral plans came at midnight Monday night. Chevalier Emanuel von Proskowetz, brother of the dead consul, sent the cable. He wired today to discover the exact date and time of the funeral service here so that services may be held at the Proskowetz residence in Austria simultaneously. The young chevalier will come to America later to settle up the consul's affairs here."

FOR THE BOYS.

Soldiers' Grand Ball During the Carnival.

Committee of Arrangements to Look After the Interesting Affair--About the Fair Booths.

At a meeting of the executive committee last night it was decided to give the soldier boys a reception and ball at the Princess rink on Wednesday night of fair week. This affair will be solely for the soldiers and the only card of admission that will be recognized will be that the person applying must be in full military uniform. There will be no charge and the committee will furnish the rink, music and light refreshments. Outsiders will be admitted only on invitation of the officers of the various companies and which must be issued through the committee. The committee appointed is: Robert B. Hanna, chairman; Captain J. F. Ford and Lieutenant M. J. Cleary, of the Hibernian Rifles; Captain H. W. Hageman and Lieutenant Ernest Boester, of the Fort Wayne Grays; Dr. E. J. McOscar, Mrs. Frank Alderman, Mrs. J. W. Hayden, Mrs. George D. Crane. While there is no desire to make the affair exclusive, it will be given solely in honor of and for the soldiers, and as there are about 400 of them in the city and hereabouts, they, with their wives, sweethearts, sisters and other fellows' sisters, will about tax the capacity of the rink.

Street booths must be uniform in depth but not in width, and a passage way of not less than three feet must be left between each two. With the exception of the three foot passsage way they can extend the entire length of the front of the building in front of which they are situated. All booths must stand eighteen inches on the the sidewalk and the balance of the depth on the street. They must present a uniform front, but can be built in any style. Dimensions are as follows: On streets where there are no street car tracks, ten feet; on streets where there is a single track, eight feet; on streets where there are double tracks, seven feet. This is official.

WORDS OF PICQUART.

Says His Death Will be Murder, Not Suicide.

The French Officer Causes a Sensation in Court.

His Trial for Forgery Has Been Postponed.

The Dreyfus Case Given a Startling Turn by One of the Principal Actors in the Drama.

PARIS, Sept. 21.—The papers here say the minister of war, General Chaneoine, has examined the documents in the Dreyfus case and has ordered the prosecution of former Colonel Picquart, on the charge of forgery and using forged documents.

The trial of Colonel Picquart and M. Loblois, a lawyer, on the charge of revealing documents concerning the national defense, was to have begun today before the correctional tribunal. The public prosecutor, however, asked for an adjournment on the ground that the prosecution of Colonel Picquart on the charge of forgery and using forged documents had been ordered by the minister of war.

M. Labori, who was counsel for M. Zola during the latter's famous trial, indignantly opposed the adjournment, which, he said, was an attempt to hand over Colonel Picquart into the clutches of the military authorities.

CAUSED A SENSATION.

Colonel Picquart then rose and made a statement which caused a sensation. He said:

"This is, perhaps, the last time I shall speak in public. I shall sleep, perhaps, in the military prison of Cherche Midi. Therefore, I wish to declare that if I find there the strangling cord of Lemercier Picard, or the razor of Colonel Henry, it will be murder, for I have no idea of committing suicide."

The audience was intensely moved and shouted, "Vive Picquart."

The judges, however, after a short deliberation, decided to indefinitely adjourn the case and Colonel Picquart was led away between policemen.

Lemercier Picard, the man referred to by Colonel Picquart, was a detective, understood to have been employed in the Dreyfus affair, who was found hanged in his lodgings about a year ago, under circumseances which cast some doubt upon the theory put forward that he had committed suicide.

ANOTHER ARREST.

New Development in Bridgeport Mystery.

Walter C. Foster Arrested, Accused of Murdering Emma Gill, Who Disappeared From Southington.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Sept. 21.—A new development in the "Yellow Mill Pond Mystery" was made known today, with the announcement of the arrest in Hartford of Walter C. Foster. The police have reached the conclusion that the young woman whose dismembered corpse was found in the pond last week was Emma Gill, daughter of Harry Gill, of Southington.

Young Foster is accused of having been an accomplice in the murder of Miss Gill. Miss Gill was twenty-four years old and had been employed as a domestic in the family of James H. Pratt, of Southington. Her brother described a mole upon her neck and a similar mark was found on the corpse.

The brother told how his sister started on a vacation. At the end of the two weeks she returned home but announced to Mr. Pratt that she was ill and was going away again. To her parents she stated that her suitor, Walter Foster, of Hartford, had a sister living in Stratford and that he had invited her to go there. Two letters that the parents sent to their daughter were answered, but a third one, with directions on the outside to the postmaster to return within three days if not called for, was received today unopened.

HOT CAKES.

A Great Rush for Them This Morning.

All Gone by Fifteen Minutes to Nine O'clock.

The people were standing around our doors this morning waiting for us to open our store. They didn't do a thing to those special Parlor Rockers, worth $5, but sold by us at $2.49, but make such a rush upon them that they were all gone by 8:45 o'clock. Scores of people coming later were disappointed in not getting one. No more can be had.

YELLOW FEVER.

Unmistakable Case of the Disease Brought on Transport from Cuba.

CAMP WIKOFF, Montauk Point, L. I., Sept. 21.—The transport Seguranca arrived today from Cuba with what is said to be one unmistakable case of yellow fever aboard. The transport brought sick and convalescent soldiers from the hospitals at Siboney. The boarding officer, Dr. Magruder, had been ordered back to Washington in the absence of anticipation of the receipt of any more yellow fever cases.

SECRETARY ALGER declares he has not resigned. But that does not make the republican politicians feel any easier.

A NEW JERSEY bigamist naively confesses that "a trolley car would not hold all the women" he has married. His wives must number near a hundred.

BLANCO would make a first-class manager for an American base ball team. When he issues a manifesto against future events he always picks himself for a winner. His only handicap is in never getting into the game.

CONGRESSMAN HULL, chairman of the committee on military affairs of the house, says the regular army should be 100,000 strong for at least two or three years. He says the volunteer army should be released and sent home as soon as possible. There will be no need of legislation relating to the volunteers. He says: "I am strongly in favor of the reorganization of the state militias, making them conform in every way to the regular formation, with three battalions and the correct number of officers. I am in favor of making this obligatory on a state before the government gives any money for the support of its militia. Under the present system, a state militia has chosen its own plan of organization, with the result that there were as many plans as there were organizations. This undoubtedly cost the government millions of dollars during the war with Spain, besides a great waste of time in getting the volunteers to the front. It also caused all kinds of jealousy and bickerings because of the various ranks that went with the same duties in different regiments. If all the state militias were organized on the same plan as the regular army the volunteer army could be got into the field in a very short time for the next war."

SAYS Lord Dufferin, speaking of the proposed Anglo-Saxon alliance: "If we considered the instability of human affairs and the complex forces which co-existed within the borders of a multitudinous democracy, I do not say that these sinister prognostications might not prove correct, but, on the whole, believe the probabilities to be the other way." This is to say, when Lord Dufferin has anything to say he says it with the directness with which a summer girl attacks a 15-cent plate of ice cream.

GENERAL KITCHENER has demanded that the French immediately evacuate Fashoda, and if the French fire upon the British the latter will immediately attack. But what if the French, although declining to evacuate, refrain from firing? Will Kitchener take the initiative and risk an international outbreak? The situation in the Soudan today is more threatening to the peace of Europe than any international crisis of recent years. Disputes over territories are not infrequent, but when such a dispute leads to bloodshed, diplomacy finds it difficult to provide a peaceful solution.

THE judge advocate general of the navy, acting under instructions from Secretary Long, has prepared a bill for introduction in congress which will substitute for the present system of naval promotion another system, whereby distinguished services will be rewarded by the bestowal of a medal and an increase of 5, 10 or 15 per cent. in pay. Now that the war is over and all promotions according to the present system have been made, it is found that the number of cases of injustice to deserving officers is unfortunately large. Many who have fought well, but who have not had the chance for individual distinction, find themselves actually degraded. One example of this will serve to show that the existing system is all wrong. It is furnished by the case of an officer in charge of one of the Brooklyn's batteries, who recently declared to his friends: "I'm mighty lucky. I've served all through the war, been in half a dozen bombardments and the fight with Cervera, and I've only lost one number." As compared with others equally deserving no doubt he has been lucky, but congress should see to it that this kind of luck is not the reward of gallant officers in the future.

NORTHERN INDIANA NOTES.

The trial of George Taylor (colored), who shot Blanche Riley at Warsaw a few weeks ago, is now in progress in that city.

Abraham Bitner, one of the oldest residents of Wabash county, died at his home in Wabash at the age of eighty years. He had lived there half a century.

Mrs. Guy Collins, of Michigan City, was frightfully burned by gasoline while using a heating iron in curling her hair. She is a bride of less than one month.

A large number of Mennonites from various parts of Northern Indiana will join a Mennonite colony which is to be located in Georgia about eighteen miles from Lithia Springs.

Prof. D. T. Powers, principal of the Rochester public schools, had trouble the first day of the term and was arrested on a charge of having committed an assault and battery on the person of one of his pupils. He has just been tried and fined $20 and costs, amounting in all to about $60.

Rev. Jacob Rothenberger, of Plymouth, is dead, after a lingering illness of typhoid fever. He had a wide reputation as a Sunday school worker. At the time of death he was a preacher in the Progressive Dunkard church and president of the Sunday School association. Mr. Rothenberger was nearly seventy years old.

At an old settlers' picnic near Middlebury, Elkhart county, last week there was one remarkable family represented in the persons of Mr. and Mrs. John Wert, of Millersburg. They have been married sixty-three years and have raised a family of fourteen children, all now living. The youngest is C. S. Wert, of Kendallville, who is thirty-five years old.

Two men were killed by the cars at South Bend. William Mansell, aged twenty years, who five weeks ago ran away from his home in Detroit, fell under a Grand Trunk train Saturday and received injuries from which he died Sunday afternoon. A tramp called "Michigan Jack," aged about twenty-eight years, was ground to pieces under a Lake Shore train Sunday afternoon.

The Wabash ticket office at New Paris, a little town on the Chicago line of that road in Elkhart county, was entered by burglars, the safe blown open and $73 in cash and a $100 note taken, Monday night. The explosion of the safe was terrific, the heavy iron door being hurled through a window and out upon the railway track. The robbers first secured the necessary tools from a blacksmith shop hard by. Officers think the methods of the burglary correspond closely to those evident in recent bank robberies in Milford, Wakarusa and Shipshewana.

Judge Stephen Wildman, of Kendallville, is dead. He was one of the pioneers of Northern Indiana, and at the time of his death one of the oldest members of the bar. He was born in Connecticut in 1815, moved to Ohio while yet a young man, and was there admitted to the Portage county bar. He came to Indiana and settled at Albion in 1847, and was soon after elected prosecuting attorney. He was elected judge of the circuit court in 1852, and was held in high esteem by all as an able administrator of the law. After his retirement he was at one time mayor of the city of Kendallville.

NERVOUS PROSTRATION.

Chaplain McIntyre, of the Oregon, is Confined to His Bed.

DENVER, Col., Sept. 21.—Chaplain J. P. McIntyre, of the battleship Oregon, has been stricken with nervous prostration and the physician who is attending him says that he may be confined to his bed for some time. It is probable that the court martial, which has been ordered to convene in Denver next week for the trial of Chaplain McIntyre on the charge of having unfairly criticised the action of Admiral Sampson and Captain Evans in the Santiago naval battle, will be obliged to postpone proceedings for several weeks on account of the chaplain's illness.

Mr. McIntyre says he has not been officially notified of the nature of the charges against him or the date of his trial and this has seemed to worry him considerably. He is staying at the house of Attorney Thomas J. Dunn, a friend, in this city.

TERM EXTENDED.

Sir Julian Pauncefote Not to Retire From Diplomatic Service Till April.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—The retirement of Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British ambassador, from the active diplomatic service, would have occurred today, had not the foreign office, as already announced, extended his term of service until next April, in recognition of his long and capable service and the acceptability of his administration to the authorities here.

The ambassador and his staff are still at Pequoit, Conn., the plan being to reopen the embassy here on October 15.

Secretary Tower has been assigned to Quebec to attend the meetings of the British American commission.

Several members of the old D. of T. club are planning a social hop for Friday evening.

HAD A WARM SESSION

Secretary Alger Pays a Visit to Camp Hamilton.

General Wiley and Others Speak Their Minds Upon Horse Doctors and Other Military Topics.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—The Record's correspondent telegraphs the following from Camp Hamilton, Lexington, Ky.:

There was a stormy scene in Inspector General Breckinridge's tent here this afternoon, in which Secretary of War Alger, Surgeon General Sternberg, Quartermaster General Ludington, Generals Breckinridge, Sanger and Wiley and Governor Bradley, of Kentucky, took part. It began as a discussion on hospitals—whether it was best to maintain division hospitals or to return to regimental hospitals. The discussion was tame for a few minutes, but it grew red hot, and changed to the subject of the management of the volunteer camps, and then it got hotter.

General Sanger began the hot talk by saying there was rottenness in the management of the departments of the quartermaster and surgeon general. Looking at Secretary Alger, he said:

"Sir, your chief cook and bottle-washer down at Chickamauga—I refer to Dr. Heidenkoper—was nothing but the very rankest sort of a veterinary surgeon, and did not know the word disinfectant. I issued order after order for materials and medicines, and could not get them. I failed utterly to get what I wanted. I sent requisition after requisition, and none of them was honored. Finally I sent a request more pointed and received the reply that such stuff was not needed."

GEN. WILEY ADDS TO THE CHARGES.

Colonel Leonard, of the Twelfth New York, who with the other colonels was present, corroborated General Sanger's statements as to Dr. Heidenkoper, and then General Wiley began to talk. He declared:

"The neglect to furnish supplies, gentlemen, was criminal. While in Chickamauga I was in command of the division over which General Sanger is now, and while holding that command I frequently made requisitions which were not honored. An imperative order had been sent to us to have all water boiled. Now, you can't boil water, Mr. Secretary, without boilers, and I made a requisition on Quartermaster General Lee for water boilers. No attention was paid to this, and I repeatedly urged him to send boilers, saying that men were taking typhoid fever by not having boiled water to drink. Failing to get any reply to my repeated telegrams, I sent him a 'sassy' message, and I received a prompt reply, which read: 'The war department does not furnish boilers.'

BOUGHT THEM HIMSELF.

"Failing to get boilers from the war department, I bought them myself; much valuable time had been lost, the seeds of disease had been sown, and, Mr. Secretary, you have seen the results of this criminal negligence in the large death reports which have been sent out from every camp in this broad land. These men in the quartermaster's department cannot stand off and say it was somebody else's fault. It was the fault of Quartermaster Lee, and it was the fault of Quartermaster Ludington, who is standing right there."

Here General Wiley pointed his finger at Ludington who winced perceptibly. Continuing, General Wiley said:

"These requisitions were made both on his office and on the quartermaster-general in charge. The brigade surgeons would complain of the absence of certain medicines and medical instruments, and requisitions for these things were not honored, and men were forced to borrow fever thermometers to take the temperature of the sick, and the same instrument had to be used from one regiment to another. These things are responsible for the wretched state of affairs now confronting you."

ALGER SEEKS THE WHOLE TRUTH.

Secretary Alger replied quickly: "I want to get at the bottom of the whole matter. We don't care if somebody's feelings are hurt. We want to find out who is to blame. But what we were to consider at this meeting is whether we are to go back to the regimental hospitals or to continue the division hospitals, or shall we have both."

Colonel Leonard opposed the division hospital, saying it was certain death in many cases to send men there. When Dr. Heidenkoper's advocates would try to put in a word for him Colonel Leonard and General Wiley, who led the fight on him, would break in and abuse him. General Sternberg came to the defense of his department and said:

"We have had a difficult problem. No requisitions came to Washington which were not honored. We honored them all promptly, and tried to secure the best regardless of cost, as Secretary Alger had instructed us to do. If the medical officers failed to do their duty, they should have been reported. If their requisition were not honored, complaints should have been lodged against the proper persons."

SCORES THE SECRETARY OF WAR.

General Wiley could stand this kind of talk no longer and he cited many instances where there was no response to demands for articles absolutely essential to the welfare of the soldiers. Addressing General Alger, he said:

"You worked the men to death at Chickamauga. Why, sir, these men were drilled from five to six hours each day in the hot sun, and when they fell there were no stretchers or litter-bearers to carry them away, nor were there any ambulances at hand in many cases, and the poor fellows were forced to lie in the broiling sun without attention. It was cruel to them and it was criminal negligence not to have a sufficient number of litter-bearers and stretchers. The reason these men were not on hand is because every available man for the doctor or nurse had been taken away from their commands and placed in the division hospital. I am not in favor of abolishing the division hospital, but am in favor of both division and regimental hospitals. Keep the men in camp and send them to division hospitals when their symptoms are fully developed. Then get trained nurses to run the division hospital."

General Sanger agreed with him. General Sternberg admitted he was right. Secretary Alger closed the meeting by saying:

"I want one more word with you. I shall hold each and every one of you personally responsible for the sanitary condition of your camps. Any officer failing to report any negligence in camp to his superior officer shall be held accountable, and any higher officer failing to correct these things will be severely dealt with. Have every man in his place. With the light of the experience we have had we ought to perfect our camps and keep sickness down to a minimum. Make your men feel that they are being cared for like we did in the civil war and I will assure you that there will be no trouble."

STEPHEN HORSEY IS DEAD.

During the Civil War He Figured in a Treason Case.

SHOALS, Ind., Sept. 21.—Stephen Horsey, of Knights of the Golden Circle fame during the civil war, died in the county asylum last night. He was seventy-seven years old. During the great civil war an organization opposed to the suppression of the rebellion sprang up in the northern states while Morton was governor, and in 1864 Mr. Horsey, together with Col. L. P. Milligan, Horace Hefron and others, were arrested for treason and were tried at Indianapolis. The late Gov. Alvin P. Hovey was a member of the commission. The trial was one of the most noted growing out of that tremendous struggle, and it resulted in conviction and a sentence of death. Governor Morton used his best efforts in the direction of clemency, and, after much effort, an appeal was carried to the supreme court, where the finding of the commission was declared to be illegal. Soon after the defendents were released by order of the president. Mr. Horsey had been prominent and active in public affairs. After his release he returned to Martin county. He always claimed that he was unjustly accused. A nemesis seemed to follow him. Gradually his possessions melted away; he outlived his friends, and some years ago he was removed to the county infirmary, where he remained until his death.

CURE FOR ASTHMA.

Discovery of a Leading Physician--A Public Test Will be Made Tomorrow at Freese & Ranke's Drug Store.

All day tomorrow free sample packages of the celebrated "Schiffmann's Asthma Cure" will be given away at Freese & Ranke's drug store, 88 Calhoun street.

The doctor wants each sufferer from Asthma, Hay Fever or Bronchitis in this city to call and get one. When asked regarding his reasons for giving his remedy away in this manner, he said: "People are naturally skeptical about an asthma remedy, and when you consider the number of so-called 'cures' on the market you can hardly blame them. Now I claim that my Cure cures. It will instantly relieve the most violent attack. It has permanently cured thousands who had been considered incurable. If I did not believe it why should I be giving it away? The sufferer who gets a sample package can tell in two minutes whether it is as I represent it, and it doesn't cost him a cent. That is fair isn't it."

It certainly does not look as if anything could be fairer. Those living out of the town can get a free sample by writing their name and address (only) on a post card addressed Dr. R. Schiffman, 315 Rosabel street, St. Paul, Minn., up to September 30th; not later.

Death of a German Poet.

BERLIN, Sept. 21.—Ferr Theodore Fontaino, the German writer and poet, is dead. He was born in 1819 and was a war correspondent during the Franco Prussian war of 1870. He was captured but was soon released. He was the author, among other works, of "The War Against France," "The War Against Austria" and "Prisoners of War."

Six Weeks of Mourning.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—The Austrian legation will observe six weeks mourning in memory of the late Empress Elizabeth. During this period Minister Von Hengelmuller and his staff will not participate in any social function save those of a strictly official character.

Dr. Kennedy Indicted.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—The grand jury today returned an indictment for murder in the first degree against Dr. Samuel J. Kennedy, who is accused of the murder of Emeline C. Reynolds, better known as "Dolly" Reynolds, in the Grand hotel on August 16.

THE CHAMPION BLUES

Kansas City Lands the Western League Pennant.

The Indianapolis Management Files Protests Against Several Games Won by Kansas City—Notes—

Kansas City won the Western league pennant from Indianapolis yesterday in a game that was aquiver with excitement until the last out in the ninth. Had Indianapolis won it would have flied the flag. Even as it lost it is not inclined to take the result as final.

Manager Allen lays claim to the pennant, and has filed protests enough to sustain it. Manager Manning will come back with counter protests, and the fiercely fought struggle will be carried into the annual meeting.

The official standing, issued by Ban Johnson, is given below. The disputed Kansas City-Detroit game, which has been credited to Detroit, is omitted altogether. Further affidavits have been filed by Manning and Johnson conclude dto leave the games unawarded till the league meeting.

	Won.	Lost.	P. C.
Kansas City	88	51	.633
Indianapolis	84	53	.627
Milwaukee	82	57	.590
St. Paul	81	58	.583
Columbus	71	80	.469
Detroit	50	87	.365
Minneapolis	48	91	.343
St. Joseph	42	93	.311

OVATION FOR MANNING'S TEAM.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 21.—The closing game of the western league season, and the one which gave the pennant to Kansas City, was the most exciting ever played on a ball field in this city. When the game was over and the crowd knew that the Blues had won the championship there was the wildest excitement. Campau, who made the catch which ended the game with two men on bases, was lifted to the shoulders of a band of enthusiastic rooters and carried from the field. Another party had secured Manager Manning and did the same with him, while Gear, who has the honor of winning the two games from Indianapolis which gave the pennant to Kansas City, was given a great ovation.

Gear pitched a steady ball, but Phillips, who won from the Blues yesterday and who thought he could do so again, was hit hard and gave way to Scott in the sixth. A home run made by Gus Klopf was the hit which won the game.

In the ninth inning, with one run scored and two men on bases, Hogriever, who was running to second, hit Klopf in the eye to prevent him from completing a double play. Although Klopf was so badly hurt that he had to leave the game, Sheridan would not impose any penalty on Hogriever. The members of his own team condemned him in the strongest teams and Hogriever left the grounds under police protection.

WESTERN LEAGUE.

Kansas City wins the pennant for 1898.
Kansas City, 6; Indianapolis, 5.
St. Paul, 6; Detroit, 5.

NOTES.

Tommy Campbell will play at Deshler, Ohio, next Saturday.

Ed Herr and Tim Flood left last evening for St. Louis, where they will spend the winter.

Latimer has reported in New York. It will do the "fans" good to know that Armour has goldbricked Freeman.

Poole, of the Springfields, went through the season without a fielding error. He played in thirty games and accepted ninety-two chances.

Tony Esterquest has received notice from the Cleveland club of his release, which he asked the Messrs. Robison to give him. The chances are that Tony will be playing short stop for the Fort Waynes next season.

Truby and Pequinney were the only "Old Soldiers" who were not reserved. Manager Guggenheim, of Youngstown, announces that these two members of the champion team will play with Youngstown next season.

But one more game remains to be played in the Robison park league. The game is to be between the Shamrocks and the Keystones, and will probably be played next Sunday morning, as the Shamrocks are to play at Lakeside park in the afternoon with the Twenty-eighth Indiana battery.

Toledo Bee: "Now that the season is over and 'hats off to Dayton' is in order, it is comparatively easy to see where Toledo has fallen down and lost the pennant. None can successfully contradict that the failure to bat heavily has put the Toledos down the list, and none can contradict that there have been attributary reasons for the slump. Bad base running is one of them. The team has not used good judgment on the base lines, or particularly good sense in the field. Many a play has been made that should not have been and many a trick has not been turned that should have resulted in an out now and then. However, the season is over, Dayton has the pennant and here's to Dayton. May she never win another!"

Former Senator Eaton Dead.

HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 21.—Former United States Senator William Eaton died here today from a stroke of paralysis sustained Sunday. He was eighty-three years old.

General Zurlinden's New Place.

PARIS, Sept. 21.—The cabinet council this morning reappointed General Zurlinden to the [illegible] of military governor of Paris, which he occupied previous to accepting the portfolio of minister of war, made vacant by the resignation of M. Cavagnac.

WILL GO TO PRISON.

Herman Kuhl and Frank Brosowski Plead Guilty.

Judge O'Rourke Sentences Them to the Jeffersonville Reformatory—James T. Reid Found Guilty.

Frank Brosowski and Herman Kuhl, two young men who were arrested several months ago for stealing liquor and tobacco from a Frenchtown saloon, appeared before Judge O'Rourke this morning and entered a plea of guilty to burglary. Judge O'Rourke sentenced them to the Jeffersonville reformatory to serve an indeterminate period of from two to fourteen years. The friends of the lads had anticipated that sentence would be suspended, but no such recommendation had been made to the judge. E. V. Emrick appeared for the defendants.

JURY FINDS REID GUILTY.

The circuit court jury which heard the evidence in the embezzlement case against James T. Reid reached an agreement at 4 o'clock yesterday and returned a verdict of guilty. The punishment is from two to fourteen years in prison. E. V. Emrick, defendant's attorney, made a motion for a new trial.

COURT NOTES.

A jury in the circuit court is hearing the evidence in the case against August Corneille, in which the defendant is charged with maintaining a nuisance. C. C. Holder is defending Corneille, while Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Thomas is prosecuting.

In the superior court the divorce case of Ellenwood vs. Ellenwood has been dismissed.

Judge Dawson has granted Jennie C. Rowe a divorce from Oscar J. Rowe. The complaint alleged abandonment.

Ernest Brooks has applied for a divorce from Alice Brooks. Complaint alleges abandonment, etc.

MURDERED IN COLD BLOOD.

George Bowman, Alaskan Gold Seeker, Wantonly Slain by a Companion.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 21.—Geo. Bowman, of Bridgeport, Conn., was murdered last winter during a terrible snow storm by a companion named Johnson, of Springfield, Mass.

He was almost in sight of the golden mecca when his strength failed him and he sank down in the soft snow. Johnson, who was the leador of the party, went back to him and, with an oath, blew out the unfortunate man's brains with a revolver.

This is the terrible story that is told for the first time by J. C. Sachs, who has just returned from Alaska. His partner, Edward T Calhoun, of Yonkers, N. Y., witnessed the terrible deed, which was committed near their cabin, a short distance from Dawson. Calhoun, too, nearly lost his life from a bullet from Johnson's revolver. Nothing was ever heard of Johnson. It is presumed he perished in the snow storm while trying to escape.

THE FARRRGUT IS SWIFT.

New Torpedo Boat Destroyer Shows Thirty Knots an Hour.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—The new torpedo boat destroyer Farragut has almost demonstrated that she can make the speed of thirty knots an hour required by the government. She has made one mile in one minute and fifty-nine and a quarter seconds, and several miles in afraction over two minutes. A slight accident caused by something getting between her propeller and hull will necessitate some delay before her official trial is made, but it is believed by her builders that she will easily make the contract speed.

We give no rewards, an offer of this kind is the meanest of deceptions. Our plan is to give every one a chance to try the merit of Ely's Cream Balm—the original Balm for the cure of Catarrh, Hay Fever and Cold in the Head, by mailing for 10 cents a trial size to test its curative powers. We mail the 50 cent size also and the druggist keeps it. Test it and you are sure to continue the treatment. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York.

SHOP AND RAIL.

The Findlay in the Midst of a Boom.

A Well Known Employe of the Bass Offices Very Ill--Local and Personal.

As a freight carrier the Findlay, Fort Wayne and Western is growing in importance. It now requires twenty to twenty five cars to handle the business of the local freight trains, whereas only five or six cars were required two years ago. The traffic in crushed stone amounts to four to six car loads daily, but this will cease with the completion of the street paving contracts now in progress. Grain, tile, country produce and merchandise shipments are rapidly increasing, however, and the present standard size of trains will probably be maintained. The morning passenger train out of this city over that line also has from one to three car loads of Union Line freight destined to Findlay or some eastern point on connecting lines.

OSEE WILMOT VERY ILL.

O. L. Wilmot, the well-known stenographer, is lying very sick at his home, 35 East Butler street. Last week Mr. Wilmot was taken with a hemorrhage at the Bass offices, where he is employed, and had to suspend work. He had been attacked before in a similar manner and no immediate serious results were apprehended and he expected to be able to resume work in a few days. Yesterday, however, he was taken worse and during last night had five bad hemorrhages, which have so weakened him as to cause alarm lest he does not recover. Relatives at Luna and Bucyrus have been notified and are expected in the city this afternoon.

LOCOMOTIVE FIREMEN.

A Toronto dispatch says: "The Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen completed the consideration today of nearly all the items of the report of the committee on beneficiaries. Some $25,000 in claims were allowed, although for legal reasons the payment was not a necessity. The grand lodge has paid out for death and disability insurance since 1889 the total amount of $4,161,147."

AN UNFORTUNATE SWITCHMAN.

Switchman C. V. Jennings, of the Wabash, was unfortunate last evening. While coupling cars the little finger of his left hand was crushed between the draw and the pin. Dr. M. F. Porter dressed the injured digit.

DAYTON'S NEW DEPOT.

The Dayton Union railway company, organized for the purpose of constructing a central passenger station in Dayton, held a meeting in Cincinnati today and decided upon the plan for the structure. The plan accepted calls for a two-story building 216 feet long and sixty feet wide. The building will face 160 feet west of Ludlow street and run back to Wilkinson street. The principal floor will be the ground floor, which will contain a general waiting room 110 by 41 feet, ladies' and gentlemen's toilet rooms, dining, lunch and serving rooms, news stands, ticket office, telegraph offices and stairways leading to the second floor, where the general offices will be located. The baggage, mail and boiler rooms are in a separate building connected with the main building by covered ways. The trucks, seven in number, are to the south of the building, and the plans call for an ornamental archway facing squarely on Ludlow street. The building is to be of brick with stone trimmings and red tile roof. Separate driveways are provided for carriages and private conveyances and transfer wagons. The former will enter from the Ludlow street side and the lattter from the Wilkinson street side.

General and Local Gossip.

The board of directors of the Chicago Great Western met yesterday and re-elected its old officers.

The roads centering at Fort Worth have arranged for the building of a union station to cost $175,000.

Nickel Plate engines 97 and 102 have exchanged places, the former going to the eastern division and the latter coming here.

Paul Mossman is attending a carriagemakers' convention at St. Louis, in the interest of Mossman, Yarnelle & Company.

Superintendents C. D. Law and J. W. Hunter went to Pittsburg last night to attend a meeting of Pennsylvania railway officials.

The August disbursements by the Pennsylvania Voluntary Relief association amounted to $18,740.05. Of this sum $4,250 was for death claims and the balance for sick and accident benefits. The number of persons receiving benefits was 976.

M. R. Hardendorf, the blacksmith, is sick.

Engineer William Tourgee, of the Pittsburg, is sick and off duty.

Boilermaker J. P. Owen, of the Pittsburg shops, is off duty on account of sickness.

J. W. Sale, of Hoffman brothers, is looking after the interests of the firm at Lafayette today.

The Pennsylvania company's Columbus shops are building passenger coaches for the Panhandle at the rate of three a month.

The sick children of Car Inspector Ernest Doelling, of the Nickel Plate, are recovering and that gentleman is thus enabled to resume his work.

Frank Stenger, the blacksmith who had a hand hurt last week, went to Lima this morning to visit relatives until he is in condition to work.

The Wells & French Car company of Chicago, yesterday commenced on a contract to build 500 cars, 60,000 pounds capacity, for the Grand Trunk.

Frank Schaffer, one of the returned soldiers, is spending his furlough in the Pennsylvania shops, working at his trade—that of a machinist.

A. L. Blake and George Wall left yesterday for Wellsville, Ohio, where they will supervise some train tests for the Pennsylvania company.

John Zurbrugg, of the Pittsburg boiler shop, and his wife are in central Indiana visiting relatives. They expect to remain there about two weeks.

The coal traffic on the Clover Leaf is at the minimum point, the miners being on a strike at many places. The daily output now is only fifty car loads.

Hugh Hogan, jr., machinist at the Pennsylvania shops, is today moving into his recently purchased property on Baker street, adjoining his father's residence.

Machinist George Scheid, who is a member of the Twenty-eighth battery, is suffering from chills and fever contracted while in camp. Dr. W. H. Myers is attending him.

Engine 92 was turned out of the Stony Island shops yesterday and will resume her old place in the through freight service in a day or two. She will be crewed by Engineer C. Titus and Fireman A. Hoffman.

Several of our citizens who attended the Masonic meeting at Cincinnati had the pleasure of meeting our former citizen, Col. Samuel Sweet, who is now general freight agent of the Lake Erie and Western, with headquarters at Indianapolis.

Yesterday's sales of homeseekers' tickets were fairly good, there being about twenty reported from each of the local offices. The largest single party was that led by Rev. Schneiders, twelve in number, which left over the Wabash for points in Kansas.

Al. Metsker, for several years checkman at the Wabash freight house, has taken a position as brakeman on the road, because he is thus enabled to increase his earnings considerably. George Baringer has been appointed to the clerical position vacated by Mr. Metsker.

The Wheeling and Lake Erie railroad will be sold not later than November. A decree will be asked for at the present term of court in Toledo, and there will be no opposition. The reorganization committee has given this out, and says no trouble is being had to gather in the assessments. The receiver will be discharged early in January.

John M. Chesboro, passenger agent of the Queen and Crescent for the Detroit district, was in the city a few hours last evening, en route to Pittsburg, where he will take charge of the joint agency during the Knights of Pythias convention. Mr. Chesboro was formerly a traveling passenger agent on the Pennsylvania and is quite well known here.

L. E. Rehling, F. Lenz and J. Fraine, three "scorchers" of the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, will decide next Saturday afternoon by actual test who is entitled to the championship of that shop. The race will take place at Centlivre park track and it will be witnessed by all the friends of the contestants. Fraine claims to be able to travel by bike 180 miles on eight hours, while Rehling and Lenz claim great speed though they do not give figures. All are equipped with latest improvements in the wheel line and all are in "good form" for fast time. The loser will provide refreshments for shopmen who attend the race.

The Electric corporation is about to commence the work of equipping an electric light plant at Allegan, Mich. One of the dynamos—a 3,000-light Wood alternator—and as much of the fixtures for the station as could be stored in one car were shipped to Allegan today. A construction gang will follow in a few days, when the work of installing the plant will begin.

WIFE DESERTION

Is the Charge Made Against One Edward Ramer.

Gave Up a Nickel With Which to Buy the Little One Milk--Police Court Notes.

Humane Officer Schlaudrauf this morning swore to an affidavit charging one Edward Ramer with wife desertion. Mr. and Mrs. Ramer are the parents of a little babe about one year of age and for some time the wife has been making an effort to have it given a home at the Allen County Orphans' home. She is unable to support it and her husband, she claims, has deserted her and refuses to give any money for the little one's maintenance. Officer Schlaudrauf says that the wife depends on the charity of friends. A day or two ago one of these friends asked the husband for money with which to buy milk and he grudgingly gave up a nickel. Ramer is at the home of his mother, while the wife and babe are with friends on Dougall street. The affidavit was placed in the hands of the police and they were ordered to bring Ramer into police court at 8:30 in the morning.

POLICE COURT.

There were five prisoners in police court this morning. Charles Franklin, a vagrant arrested by Officer Richardson, was fined $5 and costs, but the mayor suspended sentence and ordered Franklin to leave town. James Kimball, a train climber, arrested by Detective Seymour, was "sassy" in court and Mayor Scherer sent him to jail for fifteen days. Benjamin F. Weishard, a drunk arrested by Officer Paul, was fined $1 and costs, but sentence was suspended. Michael White, another drunk, arrested by Officer Greer, was fined $5 and costs. He insulted the officer after arrest and the mayor therefore assessed a bigger fine than usual for drunks. John Fitzgerald, another drunk arrested by Officer Greer, was fined $1 and costs.

NOTES.

Some petty thief entered the office of Chester Scarlet at the corner of Clinton and Berry streets and stole twenty-three two-cent postage stamps and twenty-five two-cent revenue stamps.

Billy Ragan had on his fighting clothes last night. A party was given at the home of Tom Jacobs on East Columbia street in honor of Miss Jacobs' birthday anniversary. Ragan was an uninvited guest and at the forcible request of Mr. Jacobs left the house. Later Ragan returned with a stone and assaulted Jacobs, inflicting some severe bruises on his face and head. Billy will probably soon be in the clutches of the police.

STRIKERS SUCCESSFUL.

Cleveland Wireworkers Prevent Non Union Men From Going to Work.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 21.—Another ineffectual attempt was made today by the officials of the American Wire company to take non-union men into the mill. Fifteen non-unionists, mostly Poles, accompanied by two of the company's officers, started to march from a street car to the plant. They were met by 150 strikers, who were doing picket duty around the mill, and driven away. The police allege that no violence had been attempted and refused to arrest any of the strikers.

Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse Disabled.

SOUTHAMPTON, Sept. 21. — The North German Lloyd steamer Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, which arrived here yesterday from New York, has gone into dry dock for repairs to her starboard propeller, one blade of which was lost on September 1 on her outward passage. The company's steamer Salle has taken the Kaiser Wilhelm's passengers bound for Bremen to that port.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. Walter Thompson, of South Harrison street, is entertaining Miss Jennie Linn, of Plymouth.

Miss Nellie Brennan, of Napoleon, Ohio, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Telly, 43 West Williams streets.

The Ladies' auxiliary of the railroad Y. M. C. A. will meet Thursday afternoon at 2:30 to hold their annual election of officers.

John S. House is in St. Louis this week, representing S. D. Kimbark at the annual convention of carriage manufacturers of the United States.

Mrs. Faith Scribner, wife of Judson L. Scribner, of 145 John street, died this morning of consumption. No arrangements have been made for the funeral.

The following pall bearers have been selected for the funeral of Mrs. B. H. Schneiders tomorrow morning: M. Hammond, W. O'Rourke, M. Nelligan, John Foley, John Reid and Joseph Oddou.

Fred Sovine, a member of the Twenty-eighth battery, who has been ill in one of the Indianapolis hospitals, since the return of the soldiers, has returned to his home in Fort Wayne. Fred has not entirely recovered, but is improving as rapidly as might have been expected. He lost forty pounds in weight.

Last evening about thirty young people attended a 'bus party given at the home of F. Prange, five miles west of the city. The affair was given in honor of Andy Christen, who is a member of the Zollinger battery. Dancing and patriotic songs and recitations were the features of the evening. A three-course luncheon was served at midnight.

Bad Smells.

"A single sniff of highly concentrated prussic acid will kill a man as quickly as a shot through the heart," says the Boston (U. S.) Transcript. "The odor of a bad egg is due to the presence of sulphuretted hydrogen, and the objectionable perfumes of sewers and bone factories are attributable chiefly to the same gas. Chemical laboratories are famous for bad smells. Berzelius, who discovered the element called 'selenium,' once tried the experiment of permitting a bubble of pure hydrogen selenide gas to enter his nostrils. For days afterward he was not able to smell strong ammonia, the olfactory nerves being temporarily paralyzed. Selenium gas has the odor of putrid horseradish. Tellurium is even worse. There is a story of a physician whose patient, a lady, refused to take an absolutely necessary rest because she was so fond of being always on the go in society. He gave her a pill containing a small quantity of tellurium, and her breath was affected by it to such an extent that she was not able to appear in public for a month. She never guessed what the trouble was."

A Gigantic Map.

The largest map in the world is the ordnance survey map of Great Britain, containing over one hundred and eight million sheets, and costing $1,000,000 a year for twenty years. The scale varies from ten feet to one-eighth of an inch to the mile. The details are so minute that maps having a scale of twenty-five inches "show every hedge, fence, wall, building and even every isolated tree in the country. The plans show not only the exact shape of every building, but every porch, area, doorstep, lamp post, railway and fire plug."

The Important Duties.

Every duty, even the least duty, involves the whole principle of obedience. And little duties make the will dutiful—that is, supple and prompt to obey. Little obediences lead into great. The daily round of duty is full of probation and discipline; it trains the will, heart and conscience. We need not to be prophets or apostles. The commonest life may be full of perfection. The duties of home are a discipline for the ministers of heaven

Conditions Were Changed.

Things were oddly reversed on one occasion during the Indian Mutiny. At the battle of Maharajpore, in 1843, Havelock led the Fifty-sixth Bengal Native infantry against the enemy. In 1857 he led a Sikh regiment against that very Fifty-sixth regiment, then in a state of mutiny against British rule. But, as the "Regiment" remarks, the Bengal Native infantry knew their old commander too well to wait for his onset.

A Give Away.

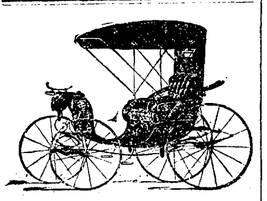

"Madame has gone out, sir, but she left a message for you." "What was the message?" "She wished that you—O, dear, I've forgotten! Just wait a minute, please, and I'll go and ask her!"—Der Floh.

The hacks of the state institution will furnish free conveyance to all who will come to the terminus of the street car line, just east of the institution.

PECULIAR POISONS.

Generated in the Human Body.

The Result of Imperfect Digestion of Food.

Every living thing, plant or animal, contains within itself the germs of certain decay and death.

In the human body these germs of disease and death (called by scientists Ptomaines) are usually the result of imperfect digestion of food; the result of indigestion or dyspepsia.

The stomach, from abuse, weakness, does not promptly and thoroughly digest the food. The result is a heavy, sodden mass which ferments (the first process of decay) poisoning the blood, making it thin, weak and lacking in red corpuscles; poisoning the brain, causing headaches and pain in the eyes.

Bad digestion irritates the heart, causing palpitation and finally bringing on disease of this very important organ.

Poor digestion poisons the kidneys, causing Bright's disease and diabetes.

And this is so because every organ, every nerve depends upon the stomach alone for nourishment and renewal, and weak digestion shows itself not only in loss of appetite and flesh, but in weak nerves and muddy complexion.

The great English scientist, Huxley, said the best start in life is a sound stomach. Weak stomachs fail to digest food properly, because they lack the proper quantity of digestive acids (lactic and hydrochloric) and peptogenic products; the most sensible remedy in all cases of indigestion, is to take after each meal one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, because they supply in a pleasant, harmless form all the elements that weak stomachs lack.

The regular use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure every form of stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach.

They increase flesh, insure pure blood, strong nerves, a bright eye and clear complexion, because all these result only from wholesome food well digested.

Nearly all druggists sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at 50 cents full sized package or by mail by enclosing price to Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich, but ask your druggist first.

A little book on stomach diseases mailed free. Address Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

UTAH KIDNEY BEANS

The Great Kidney and Bladder Remedy.

A certain cure for Bright's Disease Diabetes, Dropsy, Stone in Bladder, Gall Stones, Inflammation of Kidneys or Bladder, Incontinence of Urine, Retention in Urine Sediment, Urine Scalding Urine, Difficulty in Passing Urine, and Bed-Wetting of Children, Rheumatism, Dropsical Swellings, Pains in the Back, Irritation and Pains in the Bladder, Expulsion of the Heart, Pains under the Shoulder-Blades, Extreme Pains in the Loins, Sallow Complexion, Blotches, Continuous Headache, Great Thirst.

Beware of Liquid Kidney Remedies!

they contain Alcohol. Sick kidneys should not be fed on Alcohol—it aggravates the disease. Utah Kidney Beans are solid; they are concentrated; and they act directly on the kidneys.

Rev. Roland Hull, an eminent clergyman of the Baptist Church, residing at Williamsport, Tennessee, endorses Utah Kidney Beans for the great relief his wife received from using them. Rev. Mr. Hull is known from one end of the State of Tennessee to the other, having been in the ministry for over half a century. This good man would not endorse a medicine or anything else unless he knew beyond the shadow of a doubt that it was worthy. Therefore, such endorsements give Utah Kidney Beans a standing that no other kidney remedy in the country has. Mrs. Hull received great benefit from the use of Utah Kidney Beans; they gave her new strength—and new life. They will lift all sufferers from kidney troubles out of sick beds and restore them to vigorous health. Strength begins to return after the first few doses.

Young Men's Clothing.

Clay Worsted Suits.

$10.00 $15.00
$12.00 $18.00

Of proper style and at reasonable prices is rather difficult to find. This is because there is really very little difference in the cost of manufacture between young men's and men's sizes. The only difference is in the quantity of material used. The tailoring costs precisely the same. We, however, realize that young men or boys, as their mothers prefer to call them, must have clothes of smaller cost than men, though as a matter of fact, young men's clothes must be stronger at many points than men's clothes.

We solved the problem by simply cutting off a big portion of our legitimate profit on young men's suits, which is the only way we can sell garments of unexceptional quality at popular low prices.

Young men's or boys' suits in sizes 30 to 35 inches breast measure from

$5.00 to $15.00.

and your money back for the asking.

The Clay Worsted of which these suits are made is woven from pure worsted yarn, dyed with Alizarine black, which is the only absolutely fast black known to scientific dyers, and therefore must not be confounded with the trashy fabrics frequently offered by some dealers, which are dyed with logwood fugitive dyes.

These suits retain their original new luster until worn out, and will neither turn green nor grey when worn in sun or rain for any continuous period.

We will be pleased to have you call whether you wish to buy or not, and let us give you some information about clothes fabrics.

By fugatives we mean fading dyes.

Privates Cutter and Surfus, who were Huntertown soldiers with the Fort Wayne companies, gave a reception to the "boys in blue" at the home of Private Surfus Monday evening. A large number of Fort Wayne boys went out and they report a good time.

At the meeting of the Allen County Medical society, last evening, several excellent papers were read and discussed. The papers read were as follows: "Expert Testimony," Dr. Whery; "Oxaluria," Dr. Carl Schilling; "Chronic Dilatutian of the Heart From Acute Overstrain," Dr. McCaskey.

Henry D. Nieman is seeking a location for his grocery business, which he will shortly remove from the building at the corner of Calhoun and Jefferson streets. The building has been purchased by Herman Michaels and will be occupied by his son for a drug store. The junior Michaels is at present in Chicago, connected with a drug house, and has become proficient in the affairs of pharmacy.

Tomorrow is the natal anniversary of Conrad D. Piepenbrink, one of Fort Wayne's early pioneers, and he will celebrate the day by having a big family dinner, at which his children will be present. Mr. Piepenbrink will then be seventy-seven years old. He came to Fort Wayne in 1840, when this was not much more than a wilderness. The present new court house is the fourth building of the kind he has seen under construction in Fort Wayne.

The fifteenth annual reunion of the Eleventh Indiana battery was held at New Haven yesterday, quite a number of the comrades of this city participating. In the course of the business session it was shown that four deaths had occurred in the ranks the past year. The ladies of New Haven served dinner to the old soldiers and the day was spent in a most enjoyable manner. Several members of the Twenty-eighth battery were present. It was decided to hold the meeting next year in this city, and the members from here promised to see that everybody has a good time. The officers elected for the ensuing year, are as follows: John Otto, president; Henry M. Williams, vice president; William Glenn, secretary; H. C. Zollinger, treasurer.

AN EXPERT'S DISCOVERY.

For several years a food expert experimented with a food, the aim being to produce one easy of digestion, that would contain more nutriment than meat.

Grape-Nuts is the result of this experimenting.

It is shown that one pound of Grape-Nuts contains more nutriment than ten pounds of beef, and that brain and body feel the effect of improved nourishment at once.

One cent a meal is the cost of Grape-Nuts.

The enrollment in buildings in the public schools at the beginning of this week was as follows. New pupils will enter during the rest of the month, probably. The council committee on decorations met last evening and selected C. G. Hess, of Rurode & Company's dry goods store as grand designer. The committee will ask the council to vote $500 for their use in decorating the city building and in erecting the stand for the coronation of the carnival queen.

City Clerk Monning has received from the mayor of Kalamazoo, Mich., an invitation to all the city officials of Fort Wayne offering them the freedom of Kalamazoo during the street fair in that city. Inasmuch as the Kalamazoo street fair is held the same week as the Fort Wayne fair, the invitation will not be accepted.

A telegram from St. Louis this morning announces the arrival of a daughter at the home of Prof. and Mrs. Louis Fuerbringer. The mother was formerly Miss Anna Zucker, a teacher in our public schools and the daughter of Prof. Frederick Zucker, of Concordia college. Prof. Fuerbringer is a member of the faculty of the Lutheran university at St. Louis and is prominent in the Missouri synod.

Yielding to the requests of numerous patrons of Robison park to continue the evening season for dancing purposes the management has decided to run night cars and tender the use of the pavilion and orchestrion whenever a sufficient number of passengers are guaranteed to cover the expense of running the cars. The first of these free dancing parties will be given on Friday evening of this week. The cars will run on the usual week day schedule.

ENFORCE CURFEW.

Judge O'Rourke Appointed a Board of Children's Guardians.

The Appointments Were Made on Petition of the Humane Society--Will Help the Police.

The Humane society presented a petition to Judge O'Rourke requesting him to appoint a board of children's guardians as provided in section 3187 of the revised statutes of 1894. The society desired that the appointments be made so that the appointees could assist the police in the enforcement of the curfew law. Judge O'Rourke this morning announced his elections as follows: J. D. Bond and Mrs. M. B. Gorsline for three years: Mrs. Helen Fleming and Mrs. Helen F. Guild for two years, and Rev. H. P. Dannecker and G. W. Pixley for one year. It will be the duty of these guardians to take charge of any child without a home who may be arrested by the police under the provisions of the new curfew ordinance.

A Berlin newspaper says that the orders of decoration borne by the emperor of Germany are worth over 1,000,000 marks (a little over $230,000). His principal and most valuable decorations are the insignia of the Black Eagle, the Order of St. John, of the Garter and of the Toison d'Or. In all he has over 200 crosses, stars, badges and other insignia. It is said that he takes them with him on all his journeys and voyages, his hunting expeditions excepted. The coffer containing the decorations is in the constant care of an officer of the court, who accompanies the kaiser everywhere. On returning to Berlin the coffer is locked up with the crown jewels in the treasury.

DEATH IN THE DUST.

Frightful Loss of Life Occurs in Toledo.

Large Elevator Destroyed by an Explosion.

Fire Follows and Ten Perish in the Flames.

The Catastrophe Took Place While a Full Force of Men Was at Work—List of the Victims.

TOLEDO, Ohio, Sept. 21.—A dust explosion in the great elevator of the Union Elevator and Transportation company at 8:25 last night resulted in the death of most of the employes in the structure and a money loss exceeding a half million dollars.

There were 450,000 bushels of wheat, corn and oats in store and the entire force were at work shipping an order for 80,000 bushels of oats by rail at the time of the disaster. The explosion was heard all over the city and resembled the distant firing of heavy artillery.

The roof of the structure was thrown a hundred feet into the air and fell a mass of wreckage. The sides of the building were all thrown outward, leaving the huge grain bins standing without covering.

Every part of the wreck was instantly a mass of flames, and the conflagration was seen miles away before the fire department could reach the scene.

THE DEAD.

The list of dead so far is as follows:

Grace Parks, aged 19, daughter of Supt. W. J. Parks.

John Carr, shoveler.

Fred Garrett, shoveler.

Everett Smith, machinist.

Unknown Polish shoveler.

Another shoveler, unknown.

THE MISSING, SUPPOSED TO BE DEAD.

The following are missing and are believed to have been burned inside the building:

Frank Van Hoosen, grain inspector.

Samuel Alexander, weigher.

Harold Parks, aged 6, son of Supt. W. J. Parks.

Charles Keefer, engineer.

Davenport, shoveler.

Brinkerhoff, shoveler.

THE INJURED.

The injured are:

Hamilton Parks, aged 10, son of Supt. W. J. Parks, fatally burned.

John Smith, shoveler, face, arms and neck burned. Will probably die.

Barney Welsh, shoveler, face burned, especially eyes and ears; believed to be fatally hurt.

Fred Pargellis, assistant foreman, may recover.

Wm. J. Parks, superintendent, burned all over; fatally injured.

W. C. Jordan, yardmaster Ohio Central railroad, badly burned about face and arms.

CHILDREN WERE THERE.

Superintendent Parks had his three children with him in the building.

He was in the office at the time of the catastrophe, was blown through a window and found twenty feet away, frightfully burned, with his clothing torn off. His daughter, Grace, was seated at her father's desk, aiding him in some clerical work. She was blown through the door, her clothing aflame. She rose and ran a short distance, when she fell and rolled down a twenty foot embankment on to the Lake Shore tracks.

She was picked up, her clothing all burned off except her shoes, and medical aid summoned. She died later in the evening.

THE LOSSES ENORMOUS.

The Ohio Central road, whose tracks ran near the building, lost a depot building and a number of cars, making a total of about $50,000. The elevator was owned by the Backus family, and was operated by Paddock, Hodge & Co. The total loss, including that of the Ohio Central, is $610,000, of which $250,000 is on the building and $310,000 on grain. The building was insured for $156,000 and the grain $258,000.

FIVE MEN INJURED.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Sept. 21.—Five men were injured at the new government dam at Neville Island, near Corapolis, Pa., by the breaking of a large traveling crane. Two of the men are in a critical condition and may die. Their names are:

M. Evans, Montour Junction.

Noah Stanley, Evansville, Ind.

Martin Beck, Wellsburg, W. Va.

John Young, Evansville, Ind.

William White, Pittsburg.

Evans and Stanley are injured internally and are not expected to recover.

The accident was caused by the breaking of a steel guy line of the crane, which precipitated a large derrick, sixty feet above the crane, to the ground. In its descent the derrick tore away the supports of the crane, which crashed down upon the workmen. A huge block of stone which was being raised when the guy line broke, fell a distance of forty-five feet among a group of workmen, but fortunately the men ran for their lives, and all but five escaped injury.

GOING THE ROUNDS.

Secretary Alger Visits the Camp at Knoxville.

Reviews General McKee's Division—His Presence Made the Occasion of a Half Holiday in Knoxville.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 21.—Secretary of War Alger, Surgeon-General Sternberg and party arrived this morning at 8:30 from Lexington and were met by a reception committee of citizens. The party proceeded at once to Camp Poland, where the Second division of the first corps, commanded by Brigadier General McKee, passed in review before General Alger.

Seven regiments, the First Georgia, Thirty-first Michigan, Second and Sixth Ohio, First West Virginia, Third North Carolina and Sixth Virginia, the two latter colored, took part in the review.

The secretary and party after reviewing the division inspected the camps and hospitals. After luncheon at the residence of W. B. Lockett, in Knoxville, the party was driven to points of interest about Knoxville.

The party leaves this afternoon for Chattanooga and Camp Thomas.

Knoxville was in gala attire in honor of the secretary's visit and a half holiday was observed.

AN OLD DIVORCE.

F. W. Marshall Investigating One Granted in 1872.

Heirs Fighting for a Big Estate Down in Massachusetts—Allege Fraud in a Divorce Case.

Frederick W. Marshall, of Boston, Mass., is in the city looking up records through which he hopes to prove that Andrew J. Stearns was a resident of Fort Wayne in 1871 and 1873. In the early seventies Stearns came to Fort Wayne to reside. When he had been here the length of time required by law Stearns applied for a divorce from his wife. The application was made in the court over which Judge Carson then presided and is now on record in the Huntington circuit court. Joseph France, father of Harry F. France and J. E. K. France, was attorney for Mr. Stearns. The wife filed a cross-complaint, and on this cross-complaint the divorce was granted.

Stearns then moved back to the east and was twice married after the granting of the divorce. A few years ago he died and now the heirs of the first wife are fighting to have the divorce annulled on the ground that Stearns had not acquired a legal residence in Indiana. Mr. Marshall visited Huntington Tuesday and found the record of divorce, but inasmuch as Fort Wayne was the place of Mr. Stearns' residence, he hopes to find here some evidence that will dispose of all doubt of his legal residence in Hoosierdom. Mr. Stearns was quite wealthy and the first wife was given alimony in the sum of $15,000. Mr. Marshall is at the New Aveline and has been examining records and making inquiry of old residents during the day.

CONVICTS REVOLT.

Uprising in French Penal Colony in Guiana.

Murder the Guards, Seize Arms and are Besieging Cayenne—Captain Dreyfus in Great Danger.

LONDON, Sept. 21.—A special dispatch from Paris says the deputies representing French Guiana in the chamber have received a dispatch announcing that a mutiny has taken place among the convicts at Cayenne, the capital of French Guiana. The mutineers, it appears, overpowered and murdered their guards and then stormed the military storehouse and seized the arms and ammunition there. They are now, according to the dispatch, besieging the principal prison, and it is feared they may succeed in freeing the 4,000 convicts confined in the building.

Reinforcements have been telegraphed for to the island of Martinique, but it is said they will not arrive in time to suppress the mutiny.

Devil's island, where Albert Dreyfus, the former captain in the French artillery, is confined under sentence for having sold secrets of the war offices to a foreign government, is but a short distance from Cayenne. It is possible that the revolt of convicts may be the death knell of the prisoner whose condemnation has so fired up the French nation, for his guards are under strict orders to kill him if any attempt is made to release him or if there is any possibility of his escaping.

CERVERA GETS HOME

Spanish Admiral and Officers Reach Santander.

Large Crowd Gathers to Cheer the Old Sailor.

Captain Eulate Refuses to Talk for Publication.

Senor Rios Talks Frankly of the Falseness of the Spanish—Soldiers Leave Porto Rico for Spain.

SANTANDER, Spain, Sept. 21.—The Anchor line steamer City of Rome, chartered by Admiral Cervera to transport to Spain the Spanish sailors captured at the battle of Santiago, who were recently released by the United States authorities, arrived here today from Portsmouth, N. H., whence she sailed on September 12. Captain Eulate, the former commander of the Spanish cruiser Vizcaya, and the other Spanish naval officers landed and were mistaken for a party of which Admiral Cervera was a member. The latter, however, was still on board the City of Rome, but a crowd followed the officers and cheered for Admiral Cervera.

Captain Eulate refused to make any statement for publication, declaring he reserved what he had to say for the court martial.

PAINFUL SPECTACLE TO RIOS.

MADRID, Sept. 21.—Senor Montero Rios, president of the senate and president of the Spanish peace commission, in an interview published today is quoted as saying:

"It is a painful spectacle to see politicians of all sides trying to throw on each other the blame for disasters, the responsibility for which rested on all parties. I, personally, have always favored autonomy for Cuba, Spain being unable to forcibly maintain her sovereignty at such a great distance."

Continuing, Senor Montero Rios said:

"It is useless to speak of our disasters. Has not the country accused all our governments of exhibiting too much weakness towards the United States? What Spain wanted was a man ready to sacrifice himself and who recognized the impossibility of war with a powerful nation, especially after years of useless conflicts with insurgents."

EVACUATING PORTO RICO.

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, Sept. 21.—(Delayed in transmission.)—The repatriation of the Spanish soldiers began today. Four hundred men, of whom 200 were sick and 200 belonged to the engineer corps, sailed for Spain on board the French steamer Chateau Lafite. Eight hundred infantry, belonging to the Asturias battalion, will sail tomorrow on board the steamer San Francisco.

The water front was crowded with thousands of people when the Spanish engineers marched down, to the music of the Spanish quickstep, to the wharf, where they were received by Captain-General Macias and General Ortega.

The captain-general did not make a speech, but he shook hands with the officers and men. There was no demonstration made by the people. Some Spanish field pieces are already on board the San Francisco, but a question has arisen in the commission concerning the disposition of some of the guns, and it was not settled when this dispatch was filed.

The captain general today gave notice to the Spanish troops to retire from Abonito, Baranquilas, and Barros on Sunday and from Humacao, Guamani and Cayey on Monday.

Our troops will move up and occupy those towns as soon as they are evacuated and the Spanish troops in position near the capital will enter the city in order to be ready to embark on the arival of the transports here.

AFRAID OF FEVER.

The residents of Porto Rico and some of the Americans here, are alarmed because the Spanish ships returning from Cuba stop at this port. They believe there is danger of the introduction of yellow fever into the island from the Spanish steamer City of Cadiz, as some of the men sick on board of her were too ill to proceed and were brought ashore.

Our commissioners will protest if there is a repetition of this.

The volunteers have all been disbanded and the Spanish soldiers are engaged in dismantling the armories and barracks and in boxing the guns and ammunition. They are rejoiced over the prospect of an early return to their homes.

Rear Admiral Schley has refused to purchase the coal stored here and it may be purchased for the use of the United States army.

GLADIEUX HELPED.

Saved Lawrence County Murderer From Lynching.

The Allen County Deputy Assisted the Sheriff in Spiriting His Prisoner to the Penitentiary.

Deputy Sheriff Frank Gladieux returned this morning from Bedford, where he had taken George L. Boyers on a bench warrant for contempt of court. Mr. Gladieux had an exciting experience while in Bedford. A man named Snow had been on trial for murdering one McCarty. The jury returned a verdict finding him guilty and fixing punishment at life imprisonment. The citizens of Lawrence county were outraged at the verdict, believing, as they did, that the death penalty should have been inflicted and many of them were preparing to Lynch Snow when Deputy Sheriff Gladieux arrived in Bedford. The sheriff asked Mr. Gladieux to assist them and together they succeeded in spiriting Snow out of the city and at this time he is in the Michigan City prison. The Lawrence county sheriff and Deputy Gladieux drove in a buggy with Snow to an out-of-the-way railway station and left on the first train for the northern prison. Deputy Gladieux accompanied the sheriff and his prisoner to Lafayette and then came home. Mr. Boyers had not had his hearing when the deputy sheriff left Bedford.

AN EXPERT'S VIEW.

Captain Paget's Opinions of the War With Spain.

Criticises the Methods of Transporting Troops—Cervera's Sortie Was Foolhardy—American Battleships.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—Captain Alfred Paget, British naval attache assigned to observe operations during the recent campaign in the West Indies, is engaged here in assembling the large mass of material gathered in Cuba, and in supplementing this with the official data now being supplied by the navy department. He will spend most of the fall in getting together the material for his report to the British admiralty, which will be an exhaustive treatment of the naval branches of the campaign, with considerable attention to the military branch owing to the joint operations of the two branches during several stages of the war, and particularly in the seige of Santiago.

NAVY SHOULD HAVE CONTROL.

Speaking informally today of some of his observations, Captain Paget said it had been shown quite clearly that the naval branch of the service should have complete control of all army transportation by sea. He points out that this is the practice the world over. In the British service all transports are under the control of the admiralty.

When troops are to be shipped, the war officials make known to the admiralty the number of the men in the expedition, the divisions into infantry, cavalry and artillery and the various requirements of the several divisions. It then becomes the duty of the naval branch to provide the transports, carry the troops, the several divisions distinct and with their proper equipment, and provide all supplies required for the trip.

A naval officer, usually a lieutenant commander on the retired list, is placed in command of each transport, it being impossible to secure proper service from merchant captains.

The naval branch also conducts all loading and unloading of troops and supplies, this being a branch in which naval officials are well versed.

SOME PRACTICE IN GENERAL.

It is not until the troops are on land that the army authorities assume direction of affairs. This practice, in general operation with all large countries, particularly those having colonial possessions, could be adopted with advantage by this country, in Captain Paget's opinion, as much of the confusion in the transportation and landing of the army and supplies was due to the inexperience of the merchant captains of transports and to the direction of all sea transportation by the army rather than by the navy.

Captain Paget's report will devote much attention to the destruction of Admiral Cervera's fleet, as this was the main naval incident of the war. He is securing from the navy department complete reports of the gunnery of the American ships, with a view of showing the importance of "the man behind the gun."

CERVERA'S SORTIE FOOLHARDY.

Captain Paget's personal view is that Admiral Cervera's sortie was a most foolhardy venture, which cannot be justified by naval standards, even though ordered by the admiral's superiors.

According to Captain Paget's view, the most effective use Admiral Cervera could have made of his squadron was to have dismantled the ships of all the lighter guns, particularly the quick fires, and turned over the guns and men to General Toral for use in defending the city.

Those quick fire guns, some hundred or more, distributed along the entrenchments, and handled by the trained men of the squadron, would have been able to sustain a deadly fire on the American advance. Captain Paget expresses the belief that such a move would have made Santiago practically impregnable.

COULD HAVE HELD SANTIAGO.

He has no doubt starvation and disease would have broken down the Spanish defense in time, but Cervera's guns could have held the town from a defeat by assault.

In case of a sortie from the harbor, Captain Paget shares the view of the American naval officers that the sorties should have been made at night.

If attempted in daylight the Spanish ships should have directed their attention to the American transports, as they furnished a vulnerable point where great havoc could have been wrought. In any event, whether transports or our warships were attacked, Captain Paget maintains that the Spanish policy should have been to rush at our ships, taking them unaware before steam could be got up, and taking the risk of loss so long as some damage was inflicted. Had this plan been adopted, he thinks it might have resulted in the ramming and sinking of one or more of our ships.

AMERICAN BATTLESHIPS.

Captain Paget speaks highly of our new battleships and cruisers particularly those now on the docks, which he has examined critically through plans and specifications. He says foreign naval experts long ago recognized that first-class warships could be built in the United States, although he does admit that our ships yet excel, or even equal those of British build. In this connection a prominent naval officer recently told Captain Paget that the new cruiser New Orleans, bought in England during the early stages of the war, was a revelation to the authorities here in so far as her guns and armament are concerned.

FELL DOWN STAIRS.

Two Victims of This Kind of an Accident, and Both Hurt.

Mrs. B. H. Rekers and Herbert Kay the Unfortunates—Miss Hoffman Seriously Injured—Other Accidents.

Mrs. B. H. Rekers, wife of the Washington boulevard grocer, fell down stairs last evening, sustaining injuries of a serious nature, from which she was rendered unconscious for several hours. Although no bones were broken, injuries were inflicted upon the head, shoulders and breast, and possibly internally. The accident happened at the lady's home, 201 Wells street. Mrs. Rekers had been taking an afternoon nap, and upon rising she started across the upstairs hall. Being in a dazed condition, she missed the highest step of the stairway and fell headlong to the bottom.

BROKE HIS ARM.

George Miller, a peddler, was thrown from his wagon yesterday while unloading iron at Weil Bros.' junk shop, and his left arm was broken. The horse shied and threw him out of the rear end of the light wagon. Mr. Miller is now carrying the injured member in a sling, and is unable to be with his huckster wagon.

FELL DOWN STAIRS.

This morning Herbert Kay, a boarder at the American house, corner of Calhoun and Railroad streets, fell down stairs at the hotel and broke his right arm near the shoulder. A deep gash was also cut in his forehead. Dr. C. E. Barnett was called and the injured man was removed to St. Joseph hospital, where the injuries were dressed.

MISS KATE HOFFMAN HURT.

Yesterday afternoon, while engaged in a game of golf, at Swinney park, Miss Kate Hoffman, the elder daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hoffman, of West Berry street, was struck by a stick in the hands of a player, and seriously injured. The frontal portion of the skull was fractured by the force of the blow. Drs. Bulson and Deming attended the patient. One of the eyes is seriously injured. It is thought the young lady will recover without suffering any permanent effects. The injury was sustained in a purely accidental manner. Miss Hoffman was stooping to pull away the weeds and grass from a ball at which another player struck. The ball was driven, and the stick, rebounding, hit Miss Hoffman full in the face.

At a late hour this afternoon a rumor was current that Miss Hoffman's condition was critical. The report was denied by Dr. Deming, who says the patient is doing nicely.

HAND MASHED.

Ed. Davis, an employe at the court house, had his left hand mashed by a heavy stone this afternoon. The man's little finger may have to be amputated, as the bones are badly splintered.

BABY TAYLOR HURT.

This morning Baby Houghton, the child of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Taylor, fell from a baby cab onto the asphalt pavement. The little one suffered from the jar, but it is thought there will be no permanent effects from the accident.

A BROKEN LEG.

Mrs. Blackford, of 23 Penn street, was injured last evening in a runaway accident and sustained two fractures of the left leg. She was thrown from her buggy. The lady was removed to her home, where Dr. McHugh attended her.

Mrs. Allen Rair, of Randolph street, was very pleasantly surprised last evening, the occasion for the affair being her birthday anniversary. Dancing and card playing were features of the evening. Music was furnished by Joe Olds and Fred Brown. At 12 o'clock supper was served.

Columbian Court of Honor, No. 342, will transact important business this evening.

THE REQUIEM SUNG.

Funeral Rites Over the Body of Consul Proskowetz.

Impressive Services are Held in the Cathedral.

Remains to be Sent to Chicago for Interment.

Further Funeral Ceremonies Will be Held in That City—Remains Will Rest in Calvary Cemetery.

This morning, at the Cathedral, impressive services were held in respect to the memory of the late Austrian consul general of Chicago, Chevalier Max von Proskowetz.

Requiem high mass was celebrated and other rites performed as preliminary ceremonies before the shipment of the remains to Chicago, where the funeral proper will be held next Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

Yesterday afternoon the body of the dead consul was placed in a solid bronze casket by Funeral Director Peltier, and the face exposed to public view. The body laid in state at the Peltier parlors this morning from 7 to 9 o'clock, during which time hundreds of people interested in the sad fate of the consul, by reason of his prominence in affairs international, passed through and gazed upon the passive features of the dead man.

SIMPLICITY PREVAILED.

The casket bore no flowers, nor even a plate, there being no attempt at funeral decorations for the reason that the obsequies of an official nature do not take place in this city. The casket was of the hermetically sealed pattern, weighs 450 pounds and presents a magnificent appearance. It is constructed of a material that will endure forever.

At 9 o'clock the casket was borne from the parlors to the funeral car by pall bearers selected from members of the Catholic congregations of the city, and in deference to the wishes of Dr. Lorris, secretary of the consulate at Chicago, as well as to show the sympathy of the city, three representatives of the city served. The pall bearers were H. C. Berghoff, Dennis Monahan, W. H. Dreier, P. J. McDonald, F. W. Irwin, T. J. O'Brien, F. X. Schuler and Dr. E. J. McOscar. Those serving for the city were Messrs. Berghoff, McDonald and Schuler.

AT THE CATHEDRAL.

Arrived at the Cathedral the casket was placed at the front of the sanctuary and surrounded with candles and other religious insignia of the occasion. The mourner's bench was occupied by Dr. Lorris, the secretary of the consulate, and Adolph Weiser, attorney for the same, both of whom were bosom friends of the deceased.

Requiem high mass was sung by the following members of the clergy:

Celebrant — Very Rev. John Guendling, vicar general.

Deacon—Rev. M. J. Byrne.

Sub Deacon—Rev. J. Bathe, chancellor.

Master of Ceremonies—Rev. F. Dandurand.

BISHOP RADEMACHER'S SERMON.

After the pontification of this mass, which is one of the most beautiful and impressive rites of the church, the Rt. Rev. Bishop Rademacher pronounced the absolution and delivered a sermon eulogistic of the life of the deceased. The bishop spoke of the high intellectual qualities of the man, touching upon his abilities as a diplomat and author. He also referred to his kind and generous nature, evidences of which had come to him from various sources. He said that everybody ought to mourn over the death of one so noble, so pure in heart and so distinguished, as the loss is the world's loss. The sudden removal from earthly scenes of Consul Proskowetz he said was the more lamentable by reason of the fact that he was yet in the fullness of manhood that shone resplendent with many grand works, and the future of which would have produced a great deal more. "The sympathies of many people will follow the remains to the grave, and will cross the seas to the native home of the deceased, where the aged father and others near and dear are bowed in grief."

Immediately after the sermon the bishop delivered the benediction and the audience was dismissed. The remains were left in the church until 12 o'clock, when they were taken to the south depot and placed on the train leaving here at 12:15 for Chicago.

THE CLERGY PRESENT.

The clergy present in the sanctuary during the services were the following:

Rev. Thomas Eisenring, C. P. P. S., of the St. Joseph hospital, who prepared the consul for the last on his deathbed.

Rev. John Oechtering, of St. Mary's.

Rev. J. F. Delaney, of St. Patrick's.

Rev. H. F. X. Kroll, of St. Paul's.

Rev. H. T. Wilkes, of Decatur.

Rev. H. Boeckelman, of Elkhart.

Rev. B. Denk, of Sheldon.

There were also fifteen attendants upon the bishop.

The names of those participating in the services, as well as the clergy in attendance, will be sent to Austria by Dr. Lorris, and inscribed in the archieves of the family of Proskowetz, which is one of the foremost in that part of the country where they live.

BURIAL IN CHICAGO.

The Chicago Times-Herald this morning gives the following details of the funeral services and burial in that city:

"The funeral service over the remains of Chevalier Max von Proskowetz will be held Friday morning at 10 o'clock from the Cathedral of the Holy Name, and the interment will be in Calvary. The body of the consul general will be brought from Fort Wayne to Chicago this afternoon by attaches of the local Austro-Hungary consulate. It will lie in state at the consulate, 520 Dearborn avenue, all day Thursday. Before being taken from Fort Wayne funeral rites will be conducted and the body of the dead will be blessed. The remains will be followed to the cathedral in this city by the entire consular corps of Chicago. The consuls will also place upon the grave a floral piece elaborately ribboned and showing the escutcheon of the family Proskowetz. Rev. M. J. Fitzsimmons, rector of the Holy Name Cathedral, assisted by two priests, will conduct the solemn funeral mass at the church.

"The consular corps of Chicago gathered yesterday afternoon at the office of Carl Buenz, German consul, and addressed a letter of condolence in French to Chevalier Emanuel von Proskowetz, father of the dead consul. Mr. Buenz, in making known the cause of the meeting, paid a tribute to the character and talents of the late consul general. The telegram telling of the wishes of the family in regard to the funeral plans came at midnight Monday night. Chevalier Emanuel von Proskowetz, brother of the dead consul, sent the cable. He wired today to discover the exact date and time of the funeral service here so that services may be held at the Proskowetz residence in Austria simultaneously. The young chevalier will come to America later to settle up the consul's affairs here."

FOR THE BOYS.

Soldiers' Grand Ball During the Carnival.

Committee of Arrangements to Look After the Interesting Affair—About the Fair Booths.

At a meeting of the executive committee last night it was decided to give the soldier boys a reception and ball at the Princess rink on Wednesday night of fair week. This affair will be solely for the soldiers and the only card of admission that will be recognized will be that the person applying must be in full military uniform. There will be no charge and the committee will furnish the rink, music and light refreshments. Outsiders will be admitted only on invitation of the officers of the various companies and which must be issued through the committee. The committee appointed is: Robert B. Hanna, chairman; Captain J. F. Ford and Lieutenant M. J. Cleary, of the Hibernian Rifles; Captain H. W. Hageman and Lieutenant Ernest Booster, of the Fort Wayne Grays; Dr. E. J. McOscar, Mrs. Frank Alderman, Mrs. J. W. Hayden, Mrs. George D. Crane. While there is no desire to make the affair exclusive, it will be given solely in honor of and for the soldiers, and as there are about 400 of them in the city and hereabouts, they, with their wives, sweethearts, sisters and other fellows' sisters, will about tax the capacity of the rink.

Street booths must be uniform in depth but not in width, and a passage way of not less than three feet must be left between each two. With the exception of the three foot passage way they can extend the entire length of the front of the building in front of which they are situated. All booths must stand eighteen inches on the the sidewalk and the balance of the depth on the street. They must present a uniform front, but can be built in any style. Dimensions are as follows: On streets where there are no street car tracks, ten feet; on streets where there is a single track, eight feet; on streets where there are double tracks, seven feet. This is official.

WORDS OF PICQUART.

Says His Death Will be Murder, Not Suicide.

The French Officer Caused a Sensation in Court.

His Trial for Forgery Has Been Postponed.

The Dreyfus Case Given a Startling Turn by One of the Principal Actors in the Drama.

PARIS, Sept. 21.—The papers here say the minister of war, General Chanoine, has examined the documents in the Dreyfus case and has ordered the prosecution of former Colonel Picquart, on the charge of forgery and using forged documents.

The trial of Colonel Picquart and M. Leblois, a lawyer, on the charge of revealing documents concerning the national defense, was to have begun today before the correctional tribunal. The public prosecutor, however, asked for an adjournment on the ground that the prosecution of Colonel Picquart on the charge of forgery and using forged documents had been ordered by the minister of war.

M. Labori, who was counsel for M. Zola during the latter's famous trial, indignantly opposed the adjournment, which, he said, was an attempt to hand over Colonel Picquart into the clutches of the military authorities.

CAUSED A SENSATION.

Colonel Picquart then rose and made a statement which caused a sensation. He said:

"This is, perhaps, the last time I shall speak in public. I shall sleep, perhaps, in the military prison of Cherche Midi. Therefore, I wish to declare that if I find there the strangling cord of Lemercier Picard, or the razor of Colonel Henry, it will be murder, for I have no idea of committing suicide."

The audience was intensely moved and shouted, "Vive Picquart."

The judges, however, after a short deliberation, decided to indefinitely adjourn the case and Colonel Picquart was led away between policemen.

Lemercier Picard, the man referred to by Colonel Picquart, was a detective, understood to have been employed in the Dreyfus affair, who was found hanged in his lodgings about a year ago, under circumstances which cast some doubt upon the theory put forward that he had committed suicide.

ANOTHER ARREST.

New Development in Bridgeport Mystery.

Walter C. Foster Arrested, Accused of Murdering Emma Gill, Who Disappeared From Southington.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Sept. 21.—A new development in the "Yellow Mill Pond Mystery" was made known today, with the announcement of the arrest in Hartford of Walter C. Foster. The police have reached the conclusion that the young woman whose dismembered corpse was found in the pond last week was Emma Gill, daughter of Harry Gill, of Southington.

Young Foster is accused of having been an accomplice in the murder of Miss Gill. Miss Gill was twenty-four years old and had been employed as a domestic in the family of James H. Pratt, of Southington. Her brother described a mole upon her neck and a similar mark was found on the corpse.

The brother told how his sister started on a vacation. At the end of the two weeks she returned home but announced to Mr. Pratt that she was ill and was going away again. To her parents she stated that her suitor, Walter Foster, of Hartford, had a sister living in Stratford and that he had invited her to go there. Two letters that the parents sent to their daughter were answered, but a third one, with directions on the outside to the postmaster to return within three days if not called for, was received today unopened.

YELLOW FEVER.

Unmistakable Case of the Disease Brought on Transport from Cuba.

CAMP WIKOFF, Montauk Point, L. I., Sept. 21.—The transport Seguranca arrived today from Cuba with what is said to be one unmistakable case of yellow fever aboard. The transport brought sick and convalescent soldiers from the hospitals at Siboney. The boarding officer, Dr. Magruder, had been ordered back to Washington in the absence of anticipation of the receipt of any more yellow fever cases.

SECRETARY ALGER declares he has not resigned. But that does not make the republican politicians feel any easier.

A NEW JERSEY bigamist naively confesses that "a trolley car would not hold all the women" he has married. His wives must number near a hundred.

BLANCO would make a first-class manager for an American base ball team. When he issues a manifesto against future events he always picks himself for a winner. His only handicap is in never getting into the game.

CONGRESSMAN HULL, chairman of the committee on military affairs of the house, says the regular army should be 100,000 strong for at least two or three years. He says the volunteer army should be released and sent home as soon as possible. There will be no need of legislation relating to the volunteers. He says: "I am strongly in favor of the reorganization of the state militias, making them conform in every way to the regular formation, with three battalions and the correct number of officers. I am in favor of making this obligatory on a state before the government gives any money for the support of its militia. Under the present system, a state militia has chosen its own plan of organization, with the result that there were as many plans as there were organizations. This undoubtedly cost the government millions of dollars during the war with Spain, besides a great waste of time in getting the volunteers to the front. It also caused all kinds of jealousy and bickerings because of the various ranks that went with the same duties in different regiments. If all the state militias were organized on the same plan as the regular army the volunteer army could be got into the field in a very short time for the next war."

SAYS Lord Dufferin, speaking of the proposed Anglo Saxon alliance: "If we considered the instability of human affairs and the complex forces which co-existed within the borders of a multitudinous democracy, I do not say that these sinister prognostications might not prove correct, but, on the whole, believe the probabilities to be the other way." This is to say, when Lord Dufferin has anything to say he says it with the directness with which a summer girl attacks a 15-cent plate of ice cream.

GENERAL KITCHENER has demanded that the French immediately evacuate Fashoda, and if the French fire upon the British the latter will immediately attack. But what if the French, although declining to evacuate, refrain from firing? Will Kitchener take the initiative and risk an international outbreak? The situation in the Soudan today is more threatening to the peace of Europe than any international crisis of recent years. Disputes over territories are not infrequent, but when such a dispute leads to bloodshed, diplomacy finds it difficult to provide a peaceful solution.

THE judge advocate general of the navy, acting under instructions from Secretary Long, has prepared a bill for introduction in congress which will substitute for the present system of naval promotion another system, whereby distinguished services will be rewarded by the bestowal of a medal and an increase of 6, 10 or 15 per cent. in pay. Now that the war is over and all promotions according to the present system have been made, it is found that the number of cases of injustice to deserving officers is unfortunately large. Many who have fought well, but who have not had the chance for individual distinction, find themselves actually degraded. One example of this will serve to show that the existing system is all wrong. It is furnished by the case of an officer in charge of one of the Brooklyn's batteries, who recently declared to his friends: "I'm mighty lucky. I've served all through the war, been in half a dozen bombardments and the fight with Cervera, and I've only lost one number." As compared with others equally deserving no doubt he has been lucky, but congress should see to it that this kind of luck is not the reward of gallant officers in the future.

NORTHERN INDIANA NOTES.

The trial of George Taylor (colored), who shot Blanche Riley at Warsaw a few weeks ago, is now in progress in that city.

Abraham Bitner, one of the oldest residents of Wabash county, died at his home in Wabash at the age of eighty years. He had lived there half a century.

Mrs. Guy Collins, of Michigan City, was frightfully burned by gasoline while using a heating iron in curling her hair. She is a bride of less than one month.

A large number of Mennonites from various parts of Northern Indiana will join a Mennonite colony which is to be located in Georgia about eighteen miles from Lithia Springs.

Prof. D. T. Powers, principal of the Rochester public schools, had trouble the first day of the term and was arrested on a charge of having committed an assault and battery on the person of one of his pupils. He has just been tried and fined $20 and costs, amounting in all to about $60.

Rev. Jacob Eothenberger, of Plymouth, is dead, after a lingering illness of typhoid fever. He had a wide reputation as a Sunday school worker. At the time of death he was a preacher in the Progressive Dunkard church and president of the Sunday School association. Mr. Rothenberger was nearly seventy years old.

At an old settlers' picnic near Middlebury, Elkhart county, last week there was one remarkable family represented in the persons of Mr. and Mrs. John Wert, of Millersburg. They have been married sixty-three years and have raised a family of fourteen children, all now living. The youngest is C. S. Wert, of Kendallville, who is thirty-five years old.

Two men were killed by the cars at South Bend. William Mansell, aged twenty years, who five weeks ago ran away from his home in Detroit, fell under a Grand Trunk train Saturday and received injuries from which he died Sunday afternoon. A tramp called "Michigan Jack," aged about twenty-eight years, was ground to pieces under a Lake Shore train Sunday afternoon.

The Wabash ticket office at New Paris, a little town on the Chicago line of that road in Elkhart county, was entered by burglars, the safe blown open and $73 in cash and a $100 note taken, Monday night. The explosion of the safe was terrific, the heavy iron door being hurled through a window and out upon the railway track. The robbers first secured the necessary tools from a blacksmith shop hard by. Officers think the methods of the burglary correspond closely to those evident in recent bank robberies in Milford, Wakarusa and Shipshewana.

Judge Stephen Wildman, of Kendallville, is dead. He was one of the pioneers of Northern Indiana, and at the time of his death one of the oldest members of the bar. He was born in Connecticut in 1815, moved to Ohio while yet a young man, and was there admitted to the Portage county bar. He came to Indiana and settled at Albion in 1847, and was soon after elected prosecuting attorney. He was elected judge of the circuit court in 1852, and was held in high esteem by all as an able administrator of the law. After his retirement he was at one time mayor of the city of Kendallville.

NERVOUS PROSTRATION.

Chaplain McIntyre, of the Oregon, Is Confined to His Bed.

DENVER, Col., Sept. 21.—Chaplain J. P. McIntyre, of the battleship Oregon, has been stricken with nervous prostration and the physician who is attending him says that he may be confined to his bed for some time. It is probable that the court martial, which has been ordered to convene in Denver next week for the trial of Chaplain McIntyre on the charge of having unfairly criticised the action of Admiral Sampson and Captain Evans in the Santiago naval battle, will be obliged to postpone proceedings for several weeks on account of the chaplain's illness.

Mr. McIntyre says he has not been officially notified of the nature of the charges against him or the date of his trial and this has seemed to worry him considerably. He is staying at the house of Attorney Thomas J. Dunn, a friend, in this city.

TERM EXTENDED.

Sir Julian Pauncefote Not to Retire From Diplomatic Service Till April.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—The retirement of Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British ambassador, from the active diplomatic service, would have occurred today, had not the foreign office, as already announced, extended his term of service until next April, in recognition of his long and capable service and the acceptability of his administration to the authorities here.

The ambassador and his staff are still at Pequot, Conn., the plan being to reopen the embassy here on October 15.

Secretary Tower has been assigned to Quebec to attend the meetings of the British American commission.

Several members of the old D. of T. club are planning a social hop for Friday evening.

HAD A WARM SESSION

Secretary Alger Pays a Visit to Camp Hamilton.

General Wiley and Others Speak Their Minds Upon Horse Doctors and Other Military Topics.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—The Record's correspondent telegraphs the following from Camp Hamilton, Lexington, Ky.:

There was a stormy scene in Inspector General Breckinridge's tent here this afternoon, in which Secretary of War Alger, Surgeon General Sternberg, Quartermaster General Ludington, Generals Breckinridge, Sanger and Wiley and Governor Bradley, of Kentucky, took part. It began as a discussion on hospitals—whether it was best to maintain division hospitals or to return to regimental hospitals. The discussion was tame for a few minutes, but it grew red hot, and changed to the subject of the management of the volunteer camps, and then it got hotter.

General Sanger began the hot talk by saying there was rottenness in the management of the departments of the quartermaster and surgeon general. Looking at Secretary Alger, he said:

"Sir, your chief cook and bottle-washer down at Chickamauga—I refer to Dr. Heidenkeper—was nothing but the very rankest sort of a veterinary surgeon, and did not know the word disinfectant. I issued order after order for materials and medicines, and could not get them. I failed utterly to get what I wanted. I sent requisition after requisition, and none of them was honored. Finally I sent a request more pointed and received the reply that such stuff was not needed."

GEN. WILEY ADDS TO THE CHARGES.

Colonel Leonard, of the Twelfth New York, who with the other colonels was present, corroborated General Sanger's statements as to Dr. Heidenkeper, and then General Wiley began to talk. He declared:

"The neglect to furnish supplies, gentlemen, was criminal. While in Chickamauga I was in command of the division over which General Sanger is now, and while holding that command I frequently made requisitions which were not honored. An imperative order had been sent to us to have all water boiled. Now, you can't boil water, Mr. Secretary, without boilers, and I made a requisition on Quartermaster General Lee for water boilers. No attention was paid to this, and I repeatedly urged him to send boilers, saying that men were taking typhoid fever by not having boiled water to drink. Failing to get any reply to my repeated telegrams, I sent him a 'sassy' message, and I received a prompt reply, which read: 'The war department does not furnish boilers.'

BOUGHT THEM HIMSELF.

"Failing to get boilers from the war department, I bought them myself; much valuable time had been lost, the seeds of disease had been sown, and, Mr. Secretary, you have seen the results of this criminal negligence in the large death reports which have been sent out from every camp in this broad land. These men in the quartermaster's department cannot stand off and say it was somebody else's fault. It was the fault of Quartermaster Lee, and it was the fault of Quartermaster Ludington, who is standing right there."

Here General Wiley pointed his finger at Ludington who winced perceptibly. Continuing, General Wiley said:

"These requisitions were made both on his office and on the quartermaster general in charge. The brigade surgeons would complain of the absence of certain medicines and medical instruments, and requisitions for these things were not honored, and men were forced to borrow fever thermometers to take the temperature of the sick, and the same instrument had to be used from one regiment to another. These things are responsible for the wretched state of affairs now confronting you."

ALGER SEEKS THE WHOLE TRUTH.

Secretary Alger replied quickly: "I want to get at the bottom of the whole matter. We don't care if somebody's feelings are hurt. We want to find out who is to blame. But what we were to consider at this meeting is whether we are to go back to the regimental hospitals or to continue the division hospitals, or shall we have both."

Colonel Leonard opposed the division hospital, saying it was certain death in many cases to send men there. When Dr. Heidenkeper's advocates would try to put in a word for him Colonel Leonard and General Wiley, who led the fight on him, would break in and abuse him. General Sternberg came to the defense of his department and said:

"We have had a difficult problem. No requisitions came to Washington which were not honored. We honored them all promptly, and tried to secure the best regardless of cost, as Secretary Alger had instructed us to do. If the medical officers failed to do their duty, they should have been reported. If their requisition were not honored, complaints should have been lodged against the proper persons."

SCORES THE SECRETARY OF WAR.

General Wiley could stand this kind of talk no longer and he cited many instances where there was no response to demands for articles absolutely essential to the welfare of the soldiers. Addressing General Alger, he said:

"You worked the men to death at Chickamauga. Why, sir, these men were drilled from five to six hours each day in the hot sun, and when they fell there were no stretchers or litter-bearers to carry them away, nor were there any ambulances at hand in many cases, and the poor fellows were forced to lie in the broiling sun without attention. It was cruel to them and it was criminal negligence not to have a sufficient number of litter-bearers and stretchers. The reason these men were not on hand is because every available man for the doctor or nurse had been taken away from their commands and placed in the division hospital. I am not in favor of abolishing the division hospital, but am in favor of both division and regimental hospitals. Keep the men in camp and send them to division hospitals when their symptoms are fully developed. Then get trained nurses to run the division hospital."

General Sanger agreed with him. General Sternberg admitted he was right. Secretary Alger closed the meeting by saying:

"I want one more word with you. I shall hold each and every one of you personally responsible for the sanitary condition of your camps. Any officer failing to report any negligence in camp to his superior officer shall be held accountable, and any higher officer failing to correct these things will be severely dealt with. Have every man in his place. With the light of the experience we have had we ought to perfect our camps and keep sickness down to a minimum. Make your men feel that they are being cared for like we did in the civil war and I will assure you that there will be no trouble."

STEPHEN HORSEY IS DEAD.

During the Civil War He Figured in a Treason Case.

SHOALS, Ind., Sept. 21.—Stephen Horsey, of Knights of the Golden Circle fame during the civil war, died in the county asylum last night. He was seventy-seven years old. During the great civil war an organization opposed to the suppression of the rebellion sprang up in the northern states while Morton was governor, and in 1864 Mr. Horsey, together with Col. L. P. Milligan, Horace Hefren and others, were arrested for treason and were tried at Indianapolis. The late Gov. Alvin P. Hovey was a member of the commission. The trial was one of the most noted growing out of that tremendous struggle, and it resulted in conviction and a sentence of death. Governor Morton used his best efforts in the direction of clemency, and, after much effort, an appeal was carried to the supreme court, where the finding of the commission was declared to be illegal. Soon after the defendants were released by order of the president. Mr. Horsey had been prominent and active in public affairs. After his release he returned to Martin county. He always claimed that he was unjustly accused. A nemesis seemed to follow him. Gradually his possessions melted away; he outlived his friends, and some years ago he was removed to the county infirmary, where he remained until his death.

CURE FOR ASTHMA.

Discovery of a Leading Physician—A Public Test Will be Made Tomorrow at Freese & Ranke's Drug Store.

All day tomorrow free sample packages of the celebrated "Schiffmann's Asthma Cure" will be given away at Freese & Ranke's drug store, 88 Calhoun street.

The doctor wants each sufferer from Asthma, Hay Fever or Bronchitis in this city to call and get one. When asked regarding his reasons for giving his remedy away in this manner, he said: "People are naturally skeptical about an asthma remedy, and when you consider the number of so-called 'cures' on the market you can hardly blame them. Now I claim that my Cure cures. It will instantly relieve the most violent attack. It has permanently cured thousands who had been considered incurable. If I did not believe it why should I be giving it away? The sufferer who gets a sample package can tell in two minutes whether it is as I represent it, and it doesn't cost him a cent. That is fair isn't it."

It certainly does not look as if anything could be fairer. Those living out of the town can get a free sample by writing their name and address (only) on a post card addressed Dr. R. Schiffmann, 316 Rosabel street, St. Paul, Minn., up to September 30th; not later.

Death of a German Poet.

BERLIN, Sept. 21.—Herr Theodore Fontaine, the German writer and poet, is dead. He was born in 1819 and was a war correspondent during the Franco-Prussian war of 1870. He was captured but was soon released. He was the author, among other works, of "The War Against France," "The War Against Austria" and "Prisoners of War."

Six Weeks of Mourning.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—The Austrian legation will observe six weeks mourning in memory of the late Empress Elizabeth. During this period Minister Von Hengelmuller and his staff will not participate in any social function save those of a strictly official character.

Dr. Kennedy Indicted.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—The grand jury today returned an indictment for murder in the first degree against Dr. Samuel J. Kennedy, who is accused of the murder of Emeline C. Reynolds, better known as "Dolly" Reynolds, in the Grand hotel on August 16.

THE CHAMPION BLUES

Kansas City Lands the Western League Pennant.

The Indianapolis Management Files Protests Against Several Games Won by Kansas City—Notes.

Kansas City won the Western league pennant from Indianapolis yesterday in a game that was aquiver with excitement until the last out in the ninth. Had Indianapolis won it would have tied the flag. Even as it lost it is not inclined to take the result as final.

Manager Allen lays claim to the pennant, and has filed protests enough to sustain it. Manager Manning will come back with counter protests, and the fiercely fought struggle will be carried into the annual meeting.

The official standing, issued by Ban Johnson, is given below. The disputed Kansas City-Detroit game, which has been credited to Detroit, is omitted altogether. Further affidavits have been filed by Manning and Johnson concluded to leave the games unawarded till the league meeting.

OVATION FOR MANNING'S TEAM.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 21.—The closing game of the western league season, and the one which gave the pennant to Kansas City, was the most exciting ever played on a ball field in this city. When the game was over and the crowd knew that the Blues had won the championship there was the wildest excitement. Campau, who made the catch which ended the game with two men on bases, was lifted to the shoulders of a band of enthusiastic rooters and carried from the field. Another party had secured Manager Manning and did the same with him, while Gear, who has the honor of winning the two games from Indianapolis which gave the pennant to Kansas City, was given a great ovation.

Gear pitched a steady ball, but Phillips, who won from the Blues yesterday and who thought he could do so again, was hit hard and gave way to Scott in the sixth. A home run made by Gus Klopf was the hit which won the game.

In the ninth inning, with one run scored and two men on bases, Hogriever, who was running to second, hit Klopf in the eye to prevent him from completing a double play. Although Klopf was so badly hurt that he had to leave the game, Sheridan would not impose any penalty on Hogriever. The members of his own team condemned him in the strongest terms and Hogriever left the grounds under police protection.

NOTES.

Tommy Campbell will play at Deshler, Ohio, next Saturday.

Ed Herr and Tim Flood left last evening for St. Louis, where they will spend the winter.

Latimer has reported in New York. It will do the "fans" good to know that Armour has gold-bricked Freeman.

Poole, of the Springfields, went through the season without a fielding error. He played in thirty games and accepted ninety-two chances.

Tony Estorquest has received notice from the Cleveland club of his release, which he asked the Messrs. Robison to give him. The chances are that Tony will be playing short stop for the Fort Waynes next season.

Truby and Peppinney were the only "Old Soldiers" who were not reserved. Manager Guggenheim, of Youngstown, announces that these two members of the champion team will play with Youngstown next season.

But one more game remains to be played in the Robison park league. The game is to be between the Shamrocks and the Keystones, and will probably be played next Sunday morning, as the Shamrocks are to play at Lakeside park in the afternoon with the Twenty-eighth Indiana battery.

Toledo Bee: "Now that the season is over and 'hats off to Dayton' is in order, it is comparatively easy to see where Toledo has fallen down and lost the pennant. None can successfully contradict that the failure to bat heavily has put the Toledos down the list, and none can contradict that there have been other tributary reasons for the slump. Bad base running is one of them. The team has not used good judgment on the base lines, or particularly good sense in the field. Many a play has been made that should not have been and many a trick has not been turned that should have resulted in an out now and then. However, the season is over, Dayton has the pennant and here's to Dayton. May she never win another!"

PARIS, Sept. 21.—The cabinet council this morning reappointed General Zurlinden to the post of military governor of Paris, which he occupied previous to accepting the portfolio of minister of war, made vacant by the resignation of M. Cavaignac.

WILL GO TO PRISON.

Herman Kuhl and Frank Brosowski Plead Guilty.

Judge O'Rourke Sentences Them to the Jeffersonville Reformatory—James T. Reid Found Guilty.

Frank Brosowski and Herman Kuhl, two young men who were arrested several months ago for stealing liquor and tobacco from a Frenchtown saloon, appeared before Judge O'Rourke this morning and entered a plea of guilty to burglary. Judge O'Rourke sentenced them to the Jeffersonville reformatory to serve an indeterminate period of from two to fourteen years. The friends of the lads had anticipated that sentence would be suspended, but no such recommendation had been made to the judge. E. V. Emrick appeared for the defendants.

JURY FINDS REID GUILTY.

The circuit court jury which heard the evidence in the embezzlement case against James T. Reid reached an agreement at 4 o'clock yesterday and returned a verdict of guilty. The punishment is from two to fourteen years in prison. E. V. Emrick, defendant's attorney, made a motion for a new trial.

COURT NOTES.

A jury in the circuit court is hearing the evidence in the case against August Corneille, in which the defendant is charged with maintaining a nuisance. C. C. Holder is defending Corneille, while Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Thomas is prosecuting.

In the superior court the divorce case of Ellenwood vs. Ellenwood has been dismissed.

Judge Dawson has granted Jennie C. Rowe a divorce from Oscar J. Rowe. The complaint alleged abandonment.

Ernest Brooks has applied for a divorce from Alice Brooks. Complaint alleges abandonment, etc.

MURDERED IN COLD BLOOD.

George Bowman, Alaskan Gold Seeker, Wantonly Slain by a Companion.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 21.—Geo. Bowman, of Bridgeport, Conn., was murdered last winter during a terrible snow storm by a companion named Johnson, of Springfield, Mass.

He was almost in sight of the golden mecca when his strength failed him and he sank down in the soft snow. Johnson, who was the leader of the party, went back to him and, with an oath, blew out the unfortunate man's brains with a revolver.

This is the terrible story that is told for the first time by J. C. Sachs, who has just returned from Alaska. His partner, Edward T. Calhoun, of Yonkers, N. Y., witnessed the terrible deed, which was committed near their cabin, a short distance from Dawson. Calhoun, too, nearly lost his life from a bullet from Johnson's revolver. Nothing was ever heard of Johnson. It is presumed he perished in the snow storm while trying to escape.

THE FARRAGUT IS SWIFT.

New Torpedo Boat Destroyer Shows Thirty Knots an Hour.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—The new torpedo boat destroyer Farragut has almost demonstrated that she can make the speed of thirty knots an hour required by the government. She has made one mile in one minute and fifty-nine and a quarter seconds, and several miles in alignment over two minutes. A slight accident caused by something getting between her propeller and hull will necessitate some delay before her official trial is made, but it is believed by her builders that she will easily make the contract speed.

We give no rewards, an offer of this kind is the meanest of deceptions. Our plan is to give every one a chance to try the merit of Ely's Cream Balm—the original Balm for the cure of Catarrh, Hay Fever and Cold in the Head, by mailing for 10 cents a trial size to test its curative powers. We mail the 50 cent size also and the druggist keeps it. Test it and you are sure to continue the treatment. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York.

SHOP AND RAIL.

The Findlay in the Midst of a Boom.

A Well Known Employe of the Bass Offices Very Ill—Local and Personal.

As a freight carrier the Findlay, Fort Wayne and Western is growing in importance. It now requires twenty to twenty five cars to handle the business of the local freight trains, whereas only five or six cars were required two years ago. The traffic in crushed stone amounts to four to six car loads daily, but this will cease with the completion of the street paving contracts now in progress. Grain, tile, country produce and merchandise shipments are rapidly increasing, however, and the present standard size of trains will probably be maintained. The morning passenger train out of this city over that line also has from one to three car loads of Union Line freight destined to Findlay or some eastern point on connecting lines.

ONE WILMOT VERY ILL.

O. L. Wilmot, the well-known stenographer, is lying very sick at his home, 33 East Butler street. Last week Mr. Wilmot was taken with a hemorrhage at the Bass offices, where he is employed, and had to suspend work. He had been attacked before in a similar manner and no immediate serious results were apprehended and he expected to be able to resume work in a few days. Yesterday, however, he was taken worse and during last night had five bad hemorrhages, which have so weakened him as to cause alarm lest he does not recover. Relatives at Lima and Bucyrus have been notified and are expected in the city this afternoon.

LOCOMOTIVE FIREMEN.

A Toronto dispatch says: "The Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen completed the consideration today of nearly all the items of the report of the committee on beneficiaries. Some $25,000 in claims were allowed, although for legal reasons the payment was not a necessity. The grand lodge has paid out for death and disability insurance since 1889 the total amount of $4,161,147."

AN UNFORTUNATE SWITCHMAN.

Switchman C. V. Jennings, of the Wabash, was unfortunate last evening. While coupling cars the little finger of his left hand was crushed between the draw and the pin. Dr. M. F. Porter dressed the injured digit.

DAYTON'S NEW DEPOT.

The Dayton Union railway company, organized for the purpose of constructing a central passenger station in Dayton, held a meeting in Cincinnati today and decided upon the plan for the structure. The plan accepted calls for a two-story building 216 feet long and sixty feet wide. The building will face 100 feet west of Ludlow street and run back to Wilkinson street. The principal floor will be the ground floor, which will contain a general waiting room 110 by 31 feet, ladies' and gentlemen's toilet rooms, dining, lunch and serving rooms, news stands, ticket office, telegraph offices and stairways leading to the second floor, where the general offices will be located. The baggage, mail and boiler rooms are in a separate building connected with the main building by covered ways. The tracks, seven in number, are to the south of the building, and the plans call for an ornamental archway facing squarely on Ludlow street. The building is to be of brick with stone trimmings and red tile roof. Separate driveways are provided for carriages and private conveyances and transfer wagons. The former will enter from the Ludlow street side and the latter from the Wilkinson street side.

General and Local Gossip.

The board of directors of the Chicago Great Western met yesterday and re-elected its old officers.

The roads centering at Fort Worth have arranged for the building of a union station to cost $175,000.

Nickel Plate engines 97 and 102 have exchanged places, the former going to the eastern division and the latter coming here.

Paul Mossman is attending a carriagemakers' convention at St. Louis, in the interest of Mossman, Yarnelle & Company.

Superintendents O. D. Law and J. W. Hunter went to Pittsburg last night to attend a meeting of Pennsylvania railway officials.

The August disbursements by the Pennsylvania Voluntary Relief association amounted to $18,740.05. Of this sum $4,250 was for death claims and the balance for sick and accident benefits. The number of persons receiving benefits was 976.

M. R. Hardendorf, the blacksmith, is sick.

Engineer William Tourgee, of the Pittsburg, is sick and off duty.

Boilermaker J. P. Owen, of the Pittsburg shops, is off duty on account of sickness.

J. W. Sale, of Hoffman brothers, is looking after the interests of the firm at Lafayette today.

The Pennsylvania company's Columbus shops are building passenger coaches for the Panhandle at the rate of three a month.

The sick children of Car Inspector Ernest Doelling, of the Nickel Plate, are recovering and that gentleman is thus enabled to resume his work.

Frank Stenger, the blacksmith who had a hand hurt last week, went to Lima this morning to visit relatives until he is in condition to work.

The Wells & French Car company of Chicago, yesterday commenced on a contract to build 500 cars, 60,000 pounds capacity, for the Grand Trunk.

Frank Schaffer, one of the returned soldiers, is spending his furlough in the Pennsylvania shops, working at his trade—that of a machinist.

A. L. Blake and George Wall left yesterday for Wellsville, Ohio, where they will supervise some train tests for the Pennsylvania company.

John Zurbrugg, of the Pittsburg boiler shop, and his wife are in central Indiana visiting relatives. They expect to remain there about two weeks.

The coal traffic on the Clover Leaf is at the minimum point, the miners being on a strike at many places. The daily output now is only fifty car loads.

Hugh Hogan, jr., machinist at the Pennsylvania shops, is today moving into his recently purchased property on Baker street, adjoining his father's residence.

Machinist George Scheid, who is a member of the Twenty-eighth battery, is suffering from chills and fever contracted while in camp. Dr. W. H. Myers is attending him.

Engine 32 was turned out of the Stony Island shops yesterday and will resume her old place in the through freight service in a day or two. She will be crowed by Engineer C. Titus and Fireman A. Hoffman.

Several of our citizens who attended the Masonic meeting at Cincinnati had the pleasure of meeting our former citizen, Col. Samuel Sweet, who is now general freight agent of the Lake Erie and Western, with headquarters at Indianapolis.

Yesterday's sales of homeseekers' tickets were fairly good, there being about twenty reported from each of the local offices. The largest single party was that led by Rev. Schneiders, twelve in number, which left over the Wabash for points in Kansas.

Al. Metsker, for several years checkman at the Wabash freight house, has taken a position as brakeman on the road, because he is thus enabled to increase his earnings considerably. George Baringer has been appointed to the clerical position vacated by Mr. Metsker.

The Wheeling and Lake Erie railroad will be sold not later than November. A decree will be asked for at the present term of court in Toledo, and there will be no opposition. The reorganization committee has given this out, and says no trouble is being had to gather in the assessments. The receiver will be discharged early in January.

John M. Chesboro, passenger agent of the Queen and Crescent for the Detroit district, was in the city a few hours last evening, en route to Pittsburg, where he will take charge of the joint agency during the Knights of Pythias convention. Mr. Chesboro was formerly a traveling passenger agent on the Pennsylvania and is quite well known here.

L. E. Rehling, F. Lenz and J. Fraino, three "scorchers" of the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, will decide next Saturday afternoon by actual test who is entitled to the championship of that shop. The race will take place at Centlivre park track and it will be witnessed by all the friends of the contestants. Fraino claims to be able to travel by bike 160 miles on eight hours, while Rehling and Lenz claim great speed though they do not give figures. All are equipped with latest improvements in the wheel line and all are in "good form" for fast time. The loser will provide refreshments for shopmen who attend the race.

The Electric corporation is about to commence the work of equipping an electric light plant at Allegan, Mich. One of the dynamos—a 3,000-light Wood alternator—and as much of the fixtures for the station as could be stored in one car were shipped to Allegan today. A construction gang will follow in a few days, when the work of installing the plant will begin.

We are having a rush of business this week. Call and see why. See our window display prices.

WIFE DESERTION

Is the Charge Made Against One Edward Ramer.

Gave Up a Nickel With Which to Buy the Little One Milk—Police Court Notes.

Humane Officer Schlaudraff this morning swore to an affidavit charging one Edward Ramer with wife desertion. Mr. and Mrs. Ramer are the parents of a little babe about one year of age and for some time the wife has been making an effort to have it given a home at the Allen County Orphans' home. She is unable to support it and her husband, she claims, has deserted her and refuses to give any money for the little one's maintenance. Officer Schlaudraff says that the wife depends on the charity of friends. A day or two ago one of these friends asked the husband for money with which to buy milk and he grudgingly gave up a nickel. Ramer is at the home of his mother, while the wife and babe are with friends on Dougall street. The affidavit was placed in the hands of the police and they were ordered to bring Ramer into police court at 8:30 in the morning.

POLICE COURT.

There were five prisoners in police court this morning. Charles Franklin, a vagrant arrested by Officer Richardson, was fined $5 and costs, but the mayor suspended sentence and ordered Franklin to leave town. James Kimball, a train climber, arrested by Detective Seymour, was "sassy" in court and Mayor Scherer sent him to jail for fifteen days. Benjamin F. Woshard, a drunk arrested by Officer Paul, was fined $1 and costs, but sentence was suspended. Michael White, another drunk, arrested by Officer Greer, was fined $5 and costs. He insulted the officer after arrest and the mayor therefore assessed a bigger fine than usual for drunks. John Fitzgerald, another drunk arrested by Officer Greer, was fined $1 and costs.

NOTES

Some petty thief entered the office of Chester Scarlet at the corner of Clinton and Berry streets and stole twenty-three two cent postage stamps and twenty-five two-cent revenue stamps.

Billy Ragan had on his fighting clothes last night. A party was given at the home of Tom Jacobs on East Columbia street in honor of Miss Jacobs' birthday anniversary. Ragan was an uninvited guest and at the forcible request of Mr. Jacobs left the house. Later Ragan returned with a stone and assaulted Jacobs, inflicting some severe bruises on his face and head. Billy will probably soon be in the clutches of the police.

STRIKERS SUCCESSFUL.

Cleveland Wireworkers Prevent Non Union Men From Going to Work.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 21.—Another ineffectual attempt was made today by the officials of the American Wire company to take non-union men into the mill. Fifteen non-unionists, mostly Poles, accompanied by two of the company's officers, started to march from a street car to the plant. They were met by 150 strikers, who were doing picket duty around the mill, and driven away. The police allege that no violence had been attempted and refused to arrest any of the strikers.

Mrs. Faith Scribner, wife of Judson L. Scribner, of 115 John street, died this morning of consumption. No arrangements have been made for the funeral.

The following pall bearers have been selected for the funeral of Mrs. B. H. Schneiders tomorrow morning: M. Hammond, W. O'Rourke, M. Nelligan, John Foley, John Reid and Joseph Oddou.

Fred Sovine, a member of the Twenty-eighth battery, who has been ill in one of the Indianapolis hospitals, since the return of the soldiers, has returned to his home in Fort Wayne. Fred has not entirely recovered, but is improving as rapidly as might have been expected. He lost forty pounds in weight.

Last evening about thirty young people attended a 'bus party given at the home of F. Prange, five miles west of the city. The affair was given in honor of Andy Christen, who is a member of the Zollinger battery. Dancing and patriotic songs and recitations were the features of the evening. A three-course luncheon was served at midnight.

Bad Smells.

"A single sniff of highly concentrated prussic acid will kill a man as quickly as a shot through the heart," says the Boston (U. S.) Transcript. "The odor of a bad egg is due to the presence of sulphuretted hydrogen, and the objectionable perfumes of sewers and bone factories are attributable chiefly to the same gas. Chemical laboratories are famous for bad smells. Berzelius, who discovered the element called 'selenium,' once tried the experiment of permitting a bubble of pure hydrogen selenide gas to enter his nostrils. For days afterward he was not able to smell strong ammonia, the olfactory nerves being temporarily paralyzed. Selenium gas has the odor of putrid horseradish. Tellurium is even worse. There is a story of a physician whose patient, a lady, refused to take an absolutely necessary rest because she was so fond of being always on the go in society. He gave her a pill containing a small quantity of tellurium, and her breath was affected by it to such an extent that she was not able to appear in public for a month. She never guessed what the trouble was."

A Gigantic Map.

The largest map in the world is the ordnance survey map of Great Britain, containing over one hundred and eight million sheets, and costing $1,000,000 a year for twenty years. The scale varies from ten feet to one-eighth of an inch to the mile. The details are so minute that maps having a scale of twenty-five inches "show every hedge, fence, wall, building and even every isolated tree in the country. The plans show not only the exact shape of every building, but every porch, area, doorstep, lamp post, railway and fire plug."

The Important Duties.

Every duty, even the least duty, involves the whole principle of obedience. And little duties make the will dutiful—that is, supple and prompt to obey. Little obediences lead into great. The daily round of duty is full of probation and discipline; it trains the will, heart and conscience. We need not to be prophets or apostles. The commonest life may be full of perfection. The duties of home are a discipline for the ministers of heaven.

Conditions Were Changed.

Things were oddly reversed on one occasion during the Indian Mutiny. At the battle of Maharajpore, in 1843, Havelock led the Fifty-sixth Bengal Native Infantry against the enemy. In 1857 he led a Sikh regiment against that very Fifty-sixth regiment, then in a state of mutiny against British rule. But, as the "Regiment" remarks, the Bengal Native Infantry knew their old commander too well to wait for his onset.

A Give Away.

"Madame has gone out, sir, but she left a message for you." "What was the message?" "She wished that you —O, dear, I've forgotten! Just wait a minute, please, and I'll go and ask her!"—Der Floh.

The afternoon session will be opened with an address by Dr. C. B. Stemen, and papers will be read by Mrs. Naomi DeVilbiss, John Gillie, James Nelestine and Alexander Johnson.

The hacks of the state institution will furnish free conveyance to all who will come to the terminus of the street car line, just east of the institution.

PECULIAR POISONS.

Generated in the Human Body.

The Result of Imperfect Digestion of Food.

Every living thing, plant or animal, contains within itself the germs of certain decay and death.

In the human body these germs of disease and death (called by scientists Ptomaines) are usually the result of imperfect digestion of food; the result of indigestion or dyspepsia.

The stomach, from abuse, weakness, does not promptly and thoroughly digest the food. The result is a heavy, sodden mass which ferments (the first process of decay) poisoning the blood, making it thin, weak and lacking in red corpuscles; poisoning the brain, causing headaches and pain in the eyes.

Bad digestion irritates the heart, causing palpitation and finally bringing on disease of this very important organ.

Poor digestion poisons the kidneys, causing Bright's disease and diabetes.

And this is so because every organ, every nerve depends upon the stomach alone for nourishment and renewal, and weak digestion shows itself not only in loss of appetite and flesh, but in weak nerves and muddy complexion.

The great English scientist, Huxley, said the best start in life is a sound stomach. Weak stomachs fail to digest food properly, because they lack the proper quantity of digestive acids (lactic and hydrochloric) and peptogenic products; the most sensible remedy in all cases of indigestion, is to take after each meal one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, because they supply in a pleasant, harmless form all the elements that weak stomachs lack.

The regular use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure every form of stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach.

They increase flesh, insure pure blood, strong nerves, a bright eye and clear complexion, because all these result only from wholesome food well digested.

Nearly all druggists sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at 50 cents full sized package or by mail by enclosing price to Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich., but ask your druggist first.

Young Men's Clothing. Clay Worsted Suits.

$10.00 $15.00

$12.00 $18.00

Of proper style and at reasonable prices is rather difficult to find. This is because there is really very little difference in the cost of manufacture between young men's and men's sizes. The only difference is in the quantity of material used. The tailoring costs precisely the same. We, however, realize that young men or boys, as their mothers prefer to call them, must have clothes of smaller cost than men, though as a matter of fact, young men's clothes must be stronger at many points than men's clothes.

We solved the problem by simply cutting off a big portion of our legitimate profit on young men's suits, which is the only way we can sell garments of unexceptional quality at popular low prices.

Young men's or boys' suits in sizes 30 to 35 inches breast measure from

$5.00 to $15.00,

and your money back for the asking.

The Clay Worsted of which these suits are made is woven from pure worsted yarn, dyed with Alizarine black, which is the only absolutely fast black known to scientific dyers, and therefore must not be confounded with the trashy fabrics frequently offered by some dealers, which are dyed with logwood fugitive dyes.

These suits retain their original new luster until worn out, and will neither turn green nor grey when worn in sun or rain for any continuous period.

We will be pleased to have you call whether you wish to buy or not, and let us give you some information about clothes fabrics.

By fugitives we mean fading dyes.

Privates Clutter and Surfus, who were Huntertown soldiers with the Fort Wayne companies, gave a reception to the "boys in blue" at the home of Private Surfus Monday evening. A large number of Fort Wayne boys went out and they report a good time.

At the meeting of the Allen County Medical society, last evening, several excellent papers were read and discussed. The papers read were as follows: "Expert Testimony," Dr. Whery; "Uraluria," Dr. Carl Schilling; "Chronic Dilatation of the Heart From Acute Overstrain," Dr. McCaskey.

Henry D. Nieman is seeking a location for his grocery business, which he will shortly remove from the building at the corner of Calhoun and Jefferson streets. The building has been purchased by Herman Michaels and will be occupied by his son for a drug store. The junior Michaels is at present in Chicago, connected with a drug house, and has become proficient in the affairs of pharmacy.

Tomorrow is the natal anniversary of Conrad D. Piepenbrink, one of Fort Wayne's early pioneers, and he will celebrate the day by having a big family dinner, at which his children will be present. Mr. Piepenbrink will then be seventy-seven years old. He came to Fort Wayne in 1840, when this was not much more than a wilderness. The present new court house is the fourth building of the kind he has seen under construction in Fort Wayne.

The fifteenth annual reunion of the Eleventh Indiana battery was held at New Haven yesterday, quite a number of the comrades of this city participating. In the course of the business session it was shown that four deaths had occurred in the ranks the past year. The ladies of New Haven served dinner to the old soldiers and the day was spent in a most enjoyable manner. Several members of the Twenty-eighth battery were present. It was decided to hold the meeting next year in this city, and the members from here promised to see that everybody has a good time. The officers elected for the ensuing year, are as follows: John Otto, president; Henry M. Williams, vice president; William Glenn, secretary; H. D. Zollinger, treasurer.

AN EXPERT'S DISCOVERY.

For several years a food expert experimented with a food, the aim being to produce one easy of digestion, that would contain more nutriment than meat.

Grape-Nuts is the result of this experimenting.

It is shown that one pound of Grape-Nuts contains more nutriment than ten pounds of beef, and that brain and body feel the effect of improved nourishment at once.

One cent a meal is the cost of Grape-Nuts.

The enrollment in buildings in the public schools at the beginning of this week was as follows. New pupils will enter during the rest of the month, probably. The High school now numbers 338 pupils; the Training school, 30; the Bloomingdale, 441; the Clay, 419; the Jefferson, 512; the Hanna, 448; the Harmer, 325; the Washington, 330; the Miner, 381, the Holton avenue, 257; the Lakeside, 225; the Hamilton, 204; the McCulloch, 145, the Nebraska, 181; the South Wayne, 130; the Franklin, 70; the East German, 70; the West German; 57; total, 4,547.

A few days ago Manager Fricke's "Pumpkin Rollers" met their waterloo at a game of ball with Captain Gaskin's tossers, the score being 12 to 4.

Misses Myrtle Hurlbut and Nellie Wolf and Ed Kruse and Roy Crider, the latter of Kendallville, spent yesterday in New Haven, having gone down on their wheels.

Miss Mary Bong, of West Lewis street, is entertaining Mrs. W. O. Bassett, who is now recovering from an illness which prostrated her for three or four months.

A full attendance of the members of the Epworth league, the Ladies' Aid society and the official board of the Trinity M. E. church is desired at the prayer meeting this evening.

The Northern Indiana Dental association's convention will be in session at Elkhart tomorrow. Among the delegates from this city who went up to that place today were Drs. W. W. Shyrock, J. E. Waugh, B. B. Viberg and M. A. Mason.

A musical entertainment will be given at the U. B. church, corner of Lewis and Harmer streets, Thursday evening. The Wayne quartet will furnish music, both sacred and patriotic selections. All soldiers and others are invited. The entertainment is free.

The council committee on decorations met last evening and selected C. G. Hess, of Rurode & Company's dry goods store as grand designer. The committee will ask the council to vote $500 for their use in decorating the city building and in erecting the stand for the coronation of the carnival queen.

City Clerk Monning has received from the mayor of Kalamazoo, Mich., an invitation to all the city officials of Fort Wayne offering them the freedom of Kalamazoo during the street fair in that city. Inasmuch as the Kalamazoo street fair is held the same week as the Fort Wayne fair, the invitation will not be accepted.

A telegram from St. Louis this morning announces the arrival of a daughter at the home of Prof. and Mrs. Louis Fuerbringer. The mother was formerly Miss Anna Zucker, a teacher in our public schools and the daughter of Prof. Frederick Zucker, of Concordia college. Prof. Fuerbringer is a member of the faculty of the Lutheran university at St. Louis and is prominent in the Missouri synod.

Yielding to the requests of numerous patrons of Robison park to continue the evening season for dancing purposes the management has decided to run night cars and tender the use of the pavilion and orchestrion whenever a sufficient number of passengers are guaranteed to cover the expense of running the cars. The first of these free dancing parties will be given on Friday evening of this week. The cars will run on the usual week day schedule.

ENFORCE CURFEW.

Judge O'Rourke Appointed a Board of Children's Guardians.

The Appointments Were Made on Petition of the Humane Society—Will Help the Police.

The Humane society presented a petition to Judge O'Rourke requesting him to appoint a board of children's guardians as provided in section 3187 of the revised statutes of 1894. The society desired that the appointments be made so that the appointees could assist the police in the enforcement of the curfew law. Judge O'Rourke this morning announced his elections as follows: J. D. Bond and Mrs. M. B. Gorsline for three years: Mrs. Helen Fleming and Mrs. Helen F. Guild for two years, and Rev. H. P. Dannecker and G. W. Pixley for one year. It will be the duty of these guardians to take charge of any child without a home who may be arrested by the police under the provisions of the new curfew ordinance.

A Berlin newspaper says that the orders of decoration borne by the emperor of Germany are worth over 1,000,000 marks (a little over $230,000). His principal and most valuable decorations are the insignia of the Black Eagle, the Order of St. John, of the Garter and of the Toison d'Or. In all he has over 200 crosses, stars, badges and other insignia. It is said that he takes them with him on all his journeys and voyages, his hunting expeditions excepted. The coffer containing the decorations is in the constant care of an officer of the court, who accompanies the kaiser everywhere. On returning to Berlin the coffer is locked up with the crown jewels in the treasury.

"When Lovely Woman Stoops to Folly,"

Is when she buys a piano at what she thinks a bargain price, without the name of the maker being a guarantee of its merit. The Ebersole is recognized by artists and talented musicians everywhere as the perfection of the piano maker's art in beauty, tone and sweetness of melody.

FALL ANNOUNCEMENT!

We are prepared to again submit this fall for your inspection as complete a line of Suits, Overcoats and Trousers, Hats, Caps and Furnishing Goods as has ever been shown in this city.

Clothes Of All The Latest Weaves

Regardless of price. We will give you the best values, the neatest fit, best workmanship, the paramount feature of all our garments.

A coat of paint may be quite the swell thing among the South Sea Islanders, but it is just a trifle negligee at this season of the year. So if you need anything in Clothing, you will do well to inspect our stock.
